

Newfoundland Postal Telegraph Service.

Postal Telegraph Offices are operated throughout the Colony at all the principal places. Messages of ten words not including address or signature, are forwarded for Twenty Cents, and two cents for each additional word. A Government Cable to Canso, Cape Breton, connects with the Commercial Cable Company's system to all parts of the world. There is no more efficient telegraph service in existence. A Ten Word Message to Canada, exclusive of signature and address, costs from 55 cents to $1.00. A ten word message to the United States, exclusive of signature and address costs from $1.00 to $1.50 To Great Britain, France or Germany, 25 cents per word. Telegrams are transmitted by means of the Wireless Service during the summer season, and all the year round to steamers equipped with the wireless apparatus, which are due within the radius of each wireless station at Cape Ray and Cape Ray.

Night Lettergrams.

Night Lettergrams or Messages not exceeding fifty words may be transmitted during the night while the office is closed for regular business, and are sent at the same rate as ten words in the daytime. Night Lettergrams are accepted by the Commercial Cable Company or any of the Newfoundland Cable connections in the United States to all Postal Offices in Newfoundland. They must be written in plain English, Code or Cipher words not being permitted. Telegraph forms may be obtained at the Post Office and from Mail Clerks on Trains or Steamers, and the sender wishes the messages may be left with the P. M. to be forwarded by first mail to the nearest Telegraph Office free of postage.
