THE ELKS

A Most Enjoyable Function Marks the Opening of the New Club Rooms Established by this Order.

The Elks' conversation, an event which has been looked forward to for some time by the enthusiastic and enterprising members of this excellent order, was held last evening in the new club rooms, and served as a formal opening of these splendid new apartments.

It was a most elaborate event, and was attended by about 250 guests, including members of the society and their wives and friends. The number of guests was limited owing to the smallness of the rooms, so that the members were unable to extend invitations to as many of their friends as they could have wished. Everyone was delighted with the new club rooms, and all look forward to a prosperous future for the Elks in Chatham.

The Elks are an organization for purely social, literary, dramatic and philanthropic purposes. The order of Elks was instituted in Chatham in August, 1904, with a list of 41 chartered members, (the limit being placed at one hundred) and it was not long until this complement was reached. In January last it was decided to rent the second and third stories of the McKee block, and to fit these rooms up for lodge and club rooms. The trustees have devoted their time and energy to this difficult work, and these quarters were formally opened last evening. The Elks' Home in Chatham is second to none on the continent in point of comforts and convenience, being centrally located in the business part of the city. It now remains to enjoy it.

The officers of the order are:—
N. H. Stevens, Past Exalted Ruler,
G. W. Sulman, Exalted Ruler,
W. A. Hadley, Esteemed Lecturing Knight.

A. C. Woodward, Chaplain,
J. M. McCoig, Secretary,
Geo. Massey, Treasurer,
W. W. Seane, Esteemed Leading Knight.

H. London, Watchman,
F. B. Stevens, Guide,
Jos. Hadley, Aide,
Kingsley Holmes, Enquirer,
Ed. Massey, Tyler,
Lodge Trustees—W. R. Hall, J. T. O'Keefe, W. H. Harper.

Board of Trustees of Club—G. W. Sulman, Chairman; W. E. Gundy, Secretary; W. D. Sheldon, Dr. W. B. Hall, C. Hadley, Frank Malcolmson, J. M. McCoig, J. T. O'Keefe, W. S. Richards, Wm. Gordon, W. J. Taylor, W. W. Seane.

Last evening a most enjoyable time was spent. The entertainment opened with a program of music, which consisted of solos by Miss Gertrude Somerville, Miss Edythe Hill and J. A. Sutherland, and an address by G. W. Sulman, Exalted Ruler of the order. Mr. Sulman welcomed the guests on behalf of the order. Refreshments were served after which the dancing was enjoyed in the Auditorium.

Among the guests who were present were the following:—
Mrs. G. W. Sulman, Miss Beaton, London; Miss Fleming, Mrs. W. Gordon, Mrs. W. Landon, Mrs. F. A. Robert, Mrs. A. C. Trudell, Miss Sims, Miss Marion Gemmill, Miss Rose, Mrs. W. Stanworth, Miss Tobey, Miss W. M. Sheldon, Mrs. W. D. Sheldon, Miss Jessie Gemmill, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. F. B. Stevens, Mrs. Jos. Hadley, Mrs. W. W. Seane, Miss Wall, Mrs. John Wall, Mrs. W. S. Richards, Mrs. W. H. Harper, Miss Harper, Miss Battisby, Miss H. E. Hill, Mrs. Glenn, Miss S. A. Taylor,

CHATHAM CHURCH-GOING

Rev. Mr. Hodgins, rector of Holy Trinity church addressed a few plain words to his congregation yesterday morning. He stated that he was surprised to find in Chatham so many instances where one member of the family belongs to one church and another member to another church. It was not the case in another place where he had been stationed and he thought it more desirable for every member of one family to belong to one church. He also urged the parents to attend church regularly for it could not be expected that children would be regular attendants at church if their parents were not regular church goers.
