On Thursday evening, July 16th, the members of the Union Sabbath School met at the home of Miss Cassie Ferguson and presented her with a beautiful ring set in opals and the following eddrese;—
To Miss Cassie Ferguson:

Dear Friend and Fellow-Teacher,—
It was with the deepest regret that we learned of your intended removal from our midst, and for this reason we, the members of the Union Sabbath School, have assembled here this evening to give expression to the respect which we, your old associates, entertain for you. We desire at this time to assure you that we appreciate very highly the services you have rendered for the past few years as organist in our Sunday School, as well as your untiring efforts as teacher to foster in the minds of those brought especially under your care that spirit of love for sacred things which will ever tend to make mankind wiser and better. We feel, therefore, that we owe you a deep debt of gratitude for, the assistance you have so cheerfully given us, and we beg your acceptance of this ring as a slight token of our respect and esteem, requesting you to wear it in rememberance of your many friends of the Union Sabbath School. We will miss you from your accoustomed place, but hope you may School. We will miss you from your accustomed place, but hope you may find it convenient to visit our school often, and wishing you every success in the work you have chosen.
