DEATH IN THE COMMONS.

Mr. Henry Cargill of East Bruce Called Suddenly.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The members of the House of Commons were greatly shocked by the death within a few yards of the chamber of Mr. Henry Cargill, the representative of East Bruce, who had taken part in the discussions of the afternoon, apparently in his usual health and strength. The circumstances are so unusual, and the esteem in which the member was held so general, that the event overshadowed all others, and has cast a gloom over the political circles of the capital. Mr. Cargill spoke a few minutes before 5, and was replied to by Hon. Mr. Fielding; then, feeling oppressed, he walked to the front door of the Parliament building in search of fresh air. There he fell, and, rising, fell again, as in a fainting spell. Dr. Sproule and Dr. Kendall, members of the House, and Dr. Powell of Ottawa, were summoned at once, and restoratives applied. Mr. Cargill seemed to rally, and when the House rose at 6 he greeted many of his friends with a cheery smile. He was removed to the room of the Clerk of the House, and seemed to be getting easily, but the heart grew weaker, and at 10:50, almost simultaneously with the bell in the corridor announcing the adjournment of the House, the vital spark fled. He was surrounded by Mrs. Cargill and one daughter, Mrs. W. M. Southam of Ottawa, and a number of members of the House. The sad event soon became known and members gathered in groups, scarce realizing the truth.

Hallenbeck, at Greenfield, Columbia county, on Christmas eve, 1907. The crime was marked by callous brutality. The Van Wormer brothers had a bad record.

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion for the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY

So Thinks At Least One Traveling Man

I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage book and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without proper medicine. I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakery, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it seeds me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three times a day and a headache about three or four times a week and after standing for this for four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found it when my doctor told me the best investment I could make would be a fifty cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I have invested about fifty cents a month for them ever since and when I stop to think that that is what I spend every day for cigars, I feel like shaking hands with myself for I can keep my stomach and digestion in first class order for fifty cents a month. I don't care for any better life insurance.

My druggist tells me they are the most popular of all stomach medicines and that they have maintained their popularity and success because they do as advertised. They bring results, and results are what count in patent medicine as much as in selling barbwire.

Don't buy your frills before your foundation.

The nights are getting longer and indoor amusements will soon be in order. Commence reading the new serial, "A Bit of Blue Stone," in The Big Saturday Planet to-morrow, and you won't want to "Wander from your ain fireside."

PURITY. LAGER BEER

"The Beer That is Brewed in Glass"

We use only the best grade of barley, which is malted under our direct supervision, and the choicest Pacific, Bavarian and Kent Hops, and will gladly contribute $1,000 to charity if any one can show that any Brewer in Canada uses better brewing material.

In brewing, after the beer has been boiled in the kettle, it is pumped in to a surface cooler (an enormous pan) and then allowed to run slowly over pipes, through which cold water and cold brine is circulating, and at the same time exposed to strong drafts of pure air, to bring the beer down to proper temperature. During this process the beer will absorb bad odors or impurities in the air, and a brewery located in a neighborhood where there are impurities in the air is certain to produce beer that is more or less charged with impurities. Our plant is located in a section free from dirt, dust and "bad smells," and the coolers are 80 ft. from the ground.

We employ only competent men whose wages run from 25 per cent. to 40 per cent. above that paid by most of our competitors.

All of our apparatus is strictly first-class and up-to-date. POOR BREWING MATERIAL, ANTIQUATED APPLIANCES and CHEAP LABOR MEANS FILTH AND BEER THAT IS UNHEALTHFUL.

When you pay the standard price of five cents for a glass of beer you have a right to receive, and should demand the best, and if you do not have it furnished you should refuse to accept it.
