

Professor Henry Calderwood

But thou art gone—a ray of light
That subtly entered mental sight,
Inspiring love of God and right :
Peace, peace, and needful rest,
And be thou ever blest.