Skitch, beliford passed away at Ler nome provincial organizer, presided over the service. The audience was a very representative one and composed of many parents and children from the district. The Scripture lesson of 2nd charles of Titus was read by Mr. I. H. Henry an dearnest prayer was offered by Rev. H. S. Osborne of Bridge St. Church. An address on "Total Abstinence" was ably given by Dr. It A. Yeomans. Speaking from the physician's experience, the effect of intemperance upon the homes of this city was referred to. It is not alone the drughter of the drughter and others of the family have and the form and of the family have of the fami olithren and others of the family have to bear the suffering and humiliation of the results reaped. Much of the of the results respect. Much of the cause of tippling by young men could be attributed to the desire of attaining to their conception of what maniness meant. Any charm in trying questionable things generally resulted soon in chain-like habits being formed. The safe plan is not to take the first glass. There is no mid-way point between right and wrong. The doctor dwelt upon the consequences of tippling in various phases of our lives and exhorted those afflicted thus to link up with the Divine Restorer.
