though protected by the series of war-constructed fortifications, was captured on the following day without loss to the French, who now occupy the entire group of islands. Only the town of Khong re-mains to be captured. It is estimated that 300 Slamese were killed and 200 were wounded in the last encounter.

Great Britain Waits.

LONDON, July 24.—The British Gonernment has informed the Government of Siam that no definite pronouncement can be expected from Great Britain in regard to the territorial demands made by France upon Siam until a report of the conference between Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador to France, and M. Denelle, the French Foreign Minister, is received by the British Government.

SIAM'S REPLY.

The Important Document Handed to the French Minister at Bangkok.

Paris, July 24.—Siam's reply was handed to M. Pavie, French Minister resident in Bangkok, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The 48 hours allowed by France's ultimatum for a reply had not then expired. The text of the communication is as follows:—

M. Le Ministre,—In reply to the communication which by order of your Government you handed to me on Thursnay, July 20, at 6.46 in the evening, his Majesty the King, my angust sovereign, changes me to make to you the following declaration:

His majesty regreat that no precise definition ever has been given him of what his majesty is to understand by the expression "rights of the Empire of Annam and of the Kingdom of Cambedia on the left bank of the Mekong River." His majesty has been ever ready to abandon all territories over which the existence of those rights should have been proved, and five months ago his majesty proposed to submit all contested pointe international arbitration. Now he submits to the pressure of circumstances in order to restore peace to his people and security to the numerous commercial interests at stake in his country. His Majesty therefore consents to a delimitation of the frontiers between Siam and Cambodia, All the territory on the left bank of the Mekong river south of a line dawn from the most northerly or the Siameze military posts recently occupied by the Franco-Annamite troops to another point situated in the same latitude—that is on the 18th degree north latitude—will be regarded as Annamite and Cambodian territory, the river being common to the three conterninous States. The two Siamese military posts new existing in the above described territory will be evacuated within a month. His Majesty deplores sincerely the
