Lahore, Punjab, April 17,-That Bri tain's attitude towards Afghanistan in connection with Russian designs on Herat does not meet with approval at Cabul, the capital of Afghanistan, is proved by an autograph letter, published with the Ameer's consent, in which, after referring to the various rumors, he adds -

which, after referring to the various rumors, he adds —
"Now, when Afghanistan is overwhelmed on all sides, the British Government does not seem to take any interest, but enjoys the pride of aloofness and reserve. Whenever I have suggested a check to Russian aggression. I have had no response from the Government of India, except the suggestion that Afghanistan might consent to the construction of railways and telegraphs. This is impossible, as the Afghans consider that such a step would mean their ruin. Notwithstanding all these troubles, I have groved for the last 21 years the ally of Great Britain. But now, at the last moment, I must inform my powerful ally, the Government, of India, that the present is the time for deeds, and not for talk."

Lord Roberts Scorches the Work of Buller and Warren

Their Recall Must Follow at Once—The Publication of the Report Creates a Great Sensation in London.

London, April 18—The government has chosen this as the moment to publish a despatch from Lord Roberts, promouncing censure upon Sir Redvers Buller and Sir Charles Warren, two of his most important subordinate commanders, This despatch was written Feb. 13, and has been in the hands of the war office for five weeks. Just why it is published now, in the middle of the campaign, is not understood, unless it is expected that Gen. Buller and Gen. Warren will ask to be relieved of their commands. the records. Spencer Wilkinson, however, characterizes the publication as ill-advised.

"Coke appears to have left Spion kop at 9.30 p. m., for the purpose of consulting with Warren. Up to that hour the idea of withdrawal had not been enterpained. Yet almost immediately after Coke's departure Thorneycroft issued the order, without reference to superior authority, which upset the whole plan of operations, and rendered unavailing the sacrifices already made to carry it into effect.

"On the other hand it is only right "The effect of it on the army in Natal," he says, "must be positively demoralizing unless great changes are made in the commands, changes which, if necessary, should have been made without any preliminary public ventilation of mistakes and cross-

"By the publication of Lord Roberts' despatch the position of Sir Redvers Buller is rendered untenable and his resignation or recall is a matter of course, But the government cannot be credited with arranging the matter with consideration or generosity. LORD ROBERTS' REPORT. London, April 18.-The war office publishes in the Gazette a des-patch from Lord Roberts dated Feb. 13, submitting Gen. Buller's dispatches describing the Spion kop and other operations from Jan. 17 to Jan. Lord Roberts deals severely with Gen. Warren and some others. Even

Gen. Wurren and some others. Even Gen. Buller does not escape.

Lord Roberts complains that the plan of operation is not clearly despribed in the despatches. After sketching Gen. Buller's intentions, as communicated to Sir Charles Warren, who commanded the whole force, Lord Roberts points out that Gen. Warren agents to have concluded after coneeems to have concluded, after con-cultation with his officers, that the flanking movement ordered by Gen. Buller was impracticable, and there-fore, so changed the plan of advance as to necessitate the capture and rethe disinclination of the officer in supreme command to assert thority and see that what he thought best was done, and also to the unwarrantable and needless assumption of responsibility by a subordinate offi-The despatch concludes: "The gratifying feature of these despatches is the admirable behaviour of the troops

"On the other hand it is only right to state that Thorneycroft appears to have behaved in a very gallant manner throughout the day.

"It is to be regretted that Warren did npt himself visit the Spion kop in the afternoon or evening, knowing as he did that the state of afternoon wais very critical and that the loss of the nosition would involve the fail-

Gen. Buller's report, commenting on
Gen. Warren's reports of the capture Gen. Warren's reports of the capture and evacuation of Spion kop, after disputing the correctness of some of Warren's assertions, and describing the dangerous situation occupied by Warren's force, tells how he saw the force at Spion kop had given away before Warren knew it. Buller therefore telegraphed to Warren: "Unless you put a really good fighting man in command on top you, will lose the hill. I suggest Thorneycroft."

WANT OF ORGANIZATION.

Gen. Buller continues: "I have no Gen. Butter communes: I have not thought it necessary to creer an investigation. If at sundown the defense of the summit had been taken in hand, intrenchments laid out and the dead and wounded removed, the whole place would have been brought under regular military commands and the hills would have been held, I am the hills would have been held, I am sure. But no arrangements were made. Coke appears to have been ordered away just as he would have been useful, and no one succeeded him. Those on top were ignorant of the fact that the guns were coming up, and generally there was a want of organization and system that acted most unfavorably on the defence. It is athmitted that all of Thorney-croft's command acted with the greatest gallantry throughout the day and really saved the situation. But preparations for the second day's defense should have been organized during the day and commenced at nightfall. As this was not done, I think Thorney-croft exercised wise discretion."
