The bales consisted of groceries, medicines, warm clothing, etc., and were destined for the Omoksene Hospital, Alberta.

THE REGISTRATION

The registration of the manhood suffrage voters created quite a little excitement in the city to-day, and the workers of both parties were kept pretty busy getting those entitled to vote out. Judge Bell, Judge Dowling and James Holmes held their sittings at Harrison Hall and Judge Houston presided at the Pqlice Station. James Richardson is Judge or financial history of South Africa. tion. James Richardson is Judge Bell's clerk, W. H. Robinson is clerk to Judge Dowlin, and John Ferguson is clerk to James Holmes.

The young men and those entitled to vote were not presenting themselves very freely for registration and it was not nearly as lively this morning as it was on the first day of registration last year. The act provide that those on the voters' list in a municipality of this riding otherwis than Chatham, and who are now residents of Chatham, shall not need tregister but may vote. If they, how ever, are on a list in another riding and have been residents of Chathan for three months, then they have to register. At the Police Station only 14 were registered this marning.

LORD MILNER RESIGNS.

Migh Commissioner Is in Ill-Health an Worn Out By Labors.

London, Oct. 12.—Lerd Milner has resigned the High Commissionership of South Africa on account of ill-health, brought about by the prolonged strain in grappling with the situation which is daily becoming more difficult, owing to the financial and racial troubles of the country. Lord Milner had twice previously resigned, but was induced to reconsider his decision, which is now irrevocable. Lord Milner comes home at Christmas, and after consultation with him, his successor will be appointed.

OYAMA TO BE RECALLED

Bennett Burleigh Asserts Nedzu Will Supplant Him.

Telegraph Correspondent Indicates Tha Nedzu Saved Japanese Situation At Liseyang After Field Marshal Oyama Rad Ordered Retreat-Mikade and His Ministers Suffering From Nerves

London, cet. 12.-The English pa-London, et. 12.—The English papers this morning are still discussing what they regard as Gen. Kuropatkin's inexplicable change of plan of campaign and with the increasing conviction that it is due to pressure from St. Petersburg.

The situation will be still more complicated if the extraordinary statement sent by Bennett Burleigh from Shanghai to The Daily Telegraph to-day should turn out to be correct.

Mr. Burleigh, says it is believed.

mr. Burleigh says it is believed that Field Marshal Oyama and his staff will return or be recalled to Japan, ostensibly because the army is going into winter quarters, and that Gen. Nodzu will take over the command.

Nodau Saved Liaoyang.

"It is now well known amongst the better classes of Japanese," Mr. Burleigh adds, "that it was Nodzu who saved the situation at the battle of Liaoyang. Oyama and the headquarters had actually ordered retreat when Nodzu vigorously protested against such a step and begged them to make another effort, he more directly cooperating with Oku's more directly co-operating with Oku's right. To Nodzu, therefore, is due the sole credit of averting a disastrous totreat, which he warded off by sending in and almost sacrificing the en tire 20th Regiment of the 10th divi

According to Mr. Burleigh the Japanese still have no intention of proceeding much farther north than Mukden, and they will only under exceptional circumstances attack Tie Fass this season. Mr. Burleigh concludes: "Gen. Nishi, commander of the Japanese second division, will become Governor of Manchuria."

Almost Inconceivable.

Commenting editorially on the statements in Mr. Burleigh's correspondence The Daily Telegraph says: "The recall of Oyama is almost in-conceivable. It is Oyama's war, plan-ned and carried out by him, and his recall would be a sign that Japan, her Emperor and Ministers were suffering from an acute attack of nerves and had begun to doubt Bloody Battle Raging.

Mukden, Oct. 12.-A bloody battle is now raging about six miles north of Yentai railroad station. The Jaof Yentai railroad station. The Japanese, on Sunday, fell back along the whole front, and the Russian advance guards crossed the Schill River (about half way between Mukden and Liaoyang) and came within three miles of Yentai, but Monday the Japanese received strong reinforcements of infantry and artillery and not only held their nositions but and not only held their positions, but even assumed the offensive

The fighting lasted the entire day and night. The Japanese directed their artillery fire with great skill, and searched the Russian positions so fiercely that the Russians fell back north of Schill River, which crothe railroad seven miles from Tokio, Oct. 12.—The loss of the armored gunboat Heiyen was announced yesterday. It struck a mine off Pigeon Bay on the night of Sept.

18 and foundered. Nearly 300 perdrowned. Two petty officers and two sailors managed to reach Chiaopai Island, from which they were rescued. The Heiyen, which was engaged on guard duty off Pigeon Bay, was miss-ed by the fleet and a search for the vessel was immediately begun. The petty officers and sailors found on Chiaopai Island reported that at dusk on Sept. 18 a storm came up, accompanied by high seas. The Heiven endeavored to return to her hase when she suddenly struck a base, when she suddenly struck a floating mine, which exploded under her starboard side amidships.

Fought in a Dust Storm

Mukden, Oct. 12.—A Russian correspondent of the Associated Press, describing incidents of the Russian advance, tells of a frightful dust storm, peculiar to this season in Manchuria, which raged on Saturday. Manchuria, which raged on Saturday. It was at its height while a battalion of the Pekoff regiment, with guns, attacked a Japanese force posted in a village east of the railroad and south of the Shakhe River, and drove out the Japanese after a stubborn resistance. Clouds of dust blinded the combatants and made it impossible to a will be the combatants and made it impossible to a will be the combatants and made it. impossible to aim. The fingers of the soldiers were numb with cold, and a strong wind carried the shells beyond the mark. The Japanese got away in good order, carrying off their killed and wounded. Mighty Struggle of Armies.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 12.—Severe fighting north of Yentai, resulting in a temporary check of Gen. Kuropatkin's advance guard, is not regarded at the War Office as indicated. garded at the War Office as indicating a general engagement. The latest official despatches, indicating the disposition of the various corps, show that the whole army is not yet in line of battle. The present engagement may, therefore, be regarded as the result of a counter attack, which an enterprising foe like the Japanese might be expected to make, but without any calculation to prevent the Russian advance.
