Owing to the storm on Monday night the visit from Canning Division to Wolfville Division has been deferred until next Monday evening.

Mr. G. E. Torrie, of the Evangelical Kandy Kitchen, Wolfville, is introducing his wares in the western end of the valley. Some time ago he put a neat delivery team on the route to cater to the wants of valley confectioners and he reports a steady growth of business.

Mr. G. W. Barrall wrote to Mr. Moncton, N. B., on Tuesday last, telling us he took out of Halifax in one day $300 in orders for gent's suits. He expects to do a considerable amount of business in Kingston, New Brunswick, and will be back in Wolfville the end of the week. See advt.

$6000 to loan on Real Estate. 18 AYARD Y. FRENCH, Barrister, Wolfville.

The fancy dress festival in Aberdeen that last Friday evening was quite a successful affair, notwithstanding the numerous other attractions. There was a good attendance of skaters and spectators. Many of the costumes were pretty and original. The Wolfville Band furnished good music.

The death occurred at Grand Pre on Wednesday morning, of Mrs. Wm. Stewart, a highly respected resident of that place. Mrs. Stewart has suffered from a paralytic attack for the last four years but she bore her suffering with Christian fortitude. She was a valuable member of Chalmers' Presbyterian church and a truly benevolent and noble character.

FOR SALE.--2 sets Jubilee Stamps, 5c to 50c. Also, 12 1/2c, and 2 1/2c. Apply Box 31, Wolfville.

John C. Anderson, a native of Gosport, died at St. John, Yarmouth county, on Friday last. The deceased was a son of the late John Anderson, of Gosport, and uncle of Counsellor Anderson. He formerly studied at Acadia, but went to Yarmouth county before finishing his course. There he engaged in business and prospered, and at the time of his death was worth considerable property. He left a widow and one son.

Prof. F. H. Jones' lecture on "Home" in St. Andrew's church last Friday evening was one of the most interesting and scholarly entertainments to which Wolfvillians have had the pleasure of listening for some time. Concluded with magnificent scholarship the professor possessed all the qualities which go to make up a taking public speaker. His lecture on this occasion was one in which he is peculiarly in sympathy and he dealt with it in a masterly manner.

I see Cottonseed Meal. I see Corn-meal, expected to arrive on Monday of Tuesday, March 6 or 7. Unless delivered from cars at bottom prices.
