The publication or rejection of articles is a matter entirely in the discretion of the Editor. No responsibility is assumed by this paper for the opinions expressed by correspondents.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

ELECTION TIME

THE DATE of the provincial election has been announced and the campaign is now on. Candidates are busily going to and fro shaking hands with the people and telling them how much they want to do for the country.

THE ACADIAN is not seeking votes for any particular party but it wants to warn its readers that they are approaching a very critical time in the history of Nova Scotia, and cannot afford to be misled.

Whether one of the voters away from the things nearer home. Keep other province in your pocketbook. A candidate has spent part of his life in some impending contest.

What the electors have to do now in this Dominion. It has had its day and ceased to be.

So far as the opposition is concerned, it is a matter of fact that the party in power is not in a position to give them a right to tell and if you think you can trust them give them your vote.

But don't take anybody's word if you can't see for yourself. Register an intelligent vote. Dig into the records. What you find there will probably astonish you.

Under arrest at Vancouver in connection with the murder of Janet Smith. This case has baffled the police for months, and the young Chinaman's disappearance about six weeks ago under circumstances that suggested kidnapping added to the mystery.

CORRESPONDENTS BACK BONE OF LOCAL PAPER

A local paper depends a great deal upon its correspondents. They are a very potent factor in the paper's success or failure. THE ACADIAN has possibly, the best bunch of country correspondents in the province for a town the size of Wolfville.

Each week a goodly number of contributions are received which help to swell the news value of the paper. Each correspondent tries faithfully to garner in all the items of his or her respective district, and to get them into the office early every week.

This is a very important matter, and we feel very grateful to our correspondents for their faithfulness in this respect. A good correspondent is one of the best boosters any district has, and every person in the district should make it a point to see that their respective correspondent secures all the real news of the district.

In this way each person helps to put the district on the map. There are a few districts that are not represented in THE ACADIAN and we are sure there must be some live wires, who are sufficiently proud of the community in which they live to see that the news of their district appears in THE ACADIAN.

Do it in any way you can. Get the budgets in as received. In the first place news is set on until all available space is used. We thank our correspondents for their kindly interest, and trust they will continue their good work.

HAPPINESS

Yes, happiness is everywhere—if only we can find it! In mansion and in cottage it is equally at home. Of course, it needs a clever man to catch it, and to bind it. And keep it in his heart of hearts to cheer the hours of gloom.

It's such a mixture-medy thing—elusive as a dream! It's partly work and partly play; it's busy hours and rest. And when we've given it away with all its plumage gleaming, it flutters into our spirit-room and builds itself a nest!

IAN DRAG.

The hits made yesterday don't win today's game.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.—Deuteronomy 10:8.

For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.—1 Corinthians 11:29.

Thou shalt also consider in thine heart that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee.—Deuteronomy 8:5.

But now, O Lord, thou art our Father, we are the clay, and thou our potter, and we all are the work of thy hand.—Isaiah 64:8.

For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee.—Acts 18:26.

For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.—Isaiah 26.

For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.—Proverbs 9:11.

CHILDREN NEED SLEEP

Many defects found in children, the thought by their parents to behead at the child health conferences have demonstrated to be due to insufficient sleep, says a public health authority. If a child does not sleep three or four hours, headache, mal-nutrition, loss of appetite, paleness and nervousness result.

Certain functional disorders, such as sleep, but much of the irregular children's sleeping hours is due to habits. Some youngsters are accustomed to bed at the same hour two or three days in a row, and then to be absent. Some kiddies are to be seen in ghost stories or have grown-up grownups read about murdered babies from the daily papers.

Other children do not want to sleep in a darkened room. Sleep is essential to the growth of children. It cannot be dispensed with-out penalties being paid. Children grow up strong and well when they have sufficient sleep.

Children have their own well as result.
