

Versatile Cardigan In Its Newest Form

One can search the fashionable shops and scan the smartest of sport costumes without finding anything more alluring than the simple cardigan, descendant of the warm knitted jacket worn by men years ago. This garment owes much of its popularity to its snugness of fit. For this reason it is popular for out-of-door wear on the golf links or tramping, and the early autumn days when there is the suspicion of a chill in the brilliant. The cardigan is also liked by the business girl to wear in the office, and it is liked by everyone to wear under a coat in the winter. This comfy little jacket can be made just as simple or as elegant as one chooses, knitting it plain, or adapting it to some of the new style changes. It can be knit in a plain stocking stitch and left at that, or one can procure a chart with a design to be worked in colored wools in cross stitch, usually on the front and the sleeve, leaving the back plain. To decorate it in this way is much more simple than by knitting the design.

Another style of the same type of coat which you may call a jumper is like it better, has the same flat finish to the neck and tight fitting sleeves, but is knitted in a fancy stitch to within a few inches of the bottom, when the knitter reverts to a plain stitch, on which is worked a border of lovers' knots in cross stitch in two shades of wool.

A third model with similar neckline, is knitted in plain and fancy stitch in horizontal bars, with two bands of cross stitch around the bottom. This is really a pull-over as it buttons to the waist only.

Have you seen the new curly wool? When knitted into cap or coat it looks just like a fine curl grey lamb. This wool makes very pretty, turtle neck coats, and also those with high neck, open a few inches over the breast, because with these high neck things we wear now, there really must be an opening somewhere, to let us in.

The body of one very pretty example was knit of coral color yarn with collar, cuffs and a border around the bottom in black and white block design. The cap that goes with this coat is knit in the border colors and design. There are many types of hats, and of course they are interchangeable. One like a dose fitting cap, another a Tam O' Shanter, and another one of those pretty, rolling brim styles. Any of them can be knitted this year.

URGE CO-OPERATION FOR APPLE GROWERS

Says Creation of One Selling Organization Would be Profitable

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Nov. 22—Canadian apples have a name second to none in Great Britain, and already a market exists in Britain for the exportable surplus of this country, according to F. B. Cossitt, of Vernon B. C., Dominion fruit representative at the British Empire Exhibition, who has reached here on his return. He is of the opinion that marketing of Canadian fruit through one selling organization instead of through the different bodies maintained by the various fruit-growing provinces would be advantageous and profitable, and he also thinks that the time may come when Canada will join Australia and New Zealand in a similar co-operative scheme which will not be prejudicial to Canadian fruit as the Australian offerings reach the British markets at a different season.

Such an arrangement would assure to the British Isles a continuous supply of Empire-grown fruit marketed through the one agency. While on duty at the Exhibition, Mr. Cossitt found numerous well-to-do Englishmen of ample capital contemplating emigration to Canada where they consider better opportunities exist.

A colored preacher was comparing the church to a ship. "Now, brethren," he went on, "when you have de ship ready and de sails all up, what does yo' need fer to make de sails fill out and scoot de ship right along into de hebenly harbor, huh?"

"Wind," said old Deacon Simpson in a low tone.

"Jesso! Perzackly!" continued the pastor. "Budder Simpson will please give me wid his high hat an' raise de wind."

KENTVILLE HOCKEY TEAMS GETTING READY

Town League Formed, Trophy Offered—Seniors Have New Material

KENTVILLE, Nov. 27—At the meeting of the Kentville Amateur Hockey Club, held on November 25th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

President—H. O. Bishop.
Vice-President—G. R. Palmeter.
Secy.—Treasurer—S. A. Smith.
Executive—H. H. Bligh, H. Oylor, Laurie Ellis, W. J. Gasper.
Delegates for the Meeting of the Valley League—Ralph Walsh, W. J. Gasper.

There was quite a large attendance and some interesting subjects were brought up, amongst these the formation of a Town League for the coming season. Harris, Bligh kindly agreed to offer a cup in order to stimulate interest in this league.

In regard to the senior team, it is certain all the players of last year will be available this season as well as a number of others who are now residing in Kentville, also some younger material, which should help in giving Kentville a championship team.

A membership committee composed of S. A. Smith, R. L. Taylor, E. T. Jordan, H. H. Bligh, was appointed.

A keen interest in hockey is being manifested, and it looks as though Kentville is to have a record year in this popular sport. With the fine large Arena, one of the best in the Province, and the co-operation of all lovers of good sport, success is assured.

FIGHTING THE MAIL-ORDER HOUSES

If local business men will do a little looking around the local post office within the next few weeks they will observe a big lot of third-class mail coming into this section. That means that the mail-order houses are at the height of the fall and winter campaign. From now until after the first of the year they will be flooding the mails with catalogues and tempting "pay-nothing-down" offers. And there is but one good way to meet such competition—through the advertising columns of your home town paper. The home paper goes to the same people these catalogues go to, so why not give them a chance to read your message, too? Tell them how fully you can meet their wants, how you are right here to make good if they are not fully satisfied. Tell them your story and you will sell them your goods. Mail-order houses cannot exist without advertising, so then, advertising must be the best thing to fight back with. Don't lose any more valuable time.—Berwick Registrar.

CAN'T OUT-TALK A PRINTER

The late P. T. Barnum said: "If you have $19 to use, put $10 of it into advertising. I can out-talk any man but a printer. The man who talks every week to a thousand men while I am talking to a few, is the man I am afraid of, and I want to be his friend. Trade with the men who advertise and you get bargains and the worth of your money. Patronize your paper as your paper and as you would any other enterprise, because it helps you. The local papers are religiously read and are the very best avenues for imparting to customers or producers simple but extremely important information."
