WINTER TERM BEGINS

Tuesday, January 10, 1922

For the convenience of those young men who found it impossible to attend at the commencement of the course, November 1st last, arrangements have been made that they may yet be accepted or admitted in the winter term class in the

Course in Agriculture and Farm Mechanics

That the greatest importance for the improvement of agriculture be made, is so important that those destined to go into agriculture must be educated. If the summer classes do not fit in with the educational system of the school, there is no alternative now.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

St. John's Night was observed with all the ancient and honorable customs and usages by brothers of Carson Lodge, F. and A. M. at the Masonic Temple, East Florenceville. The following brothers were duly installed as officers for the ensuing year: W. M. J. Chedley, Stevens; S. W. J. E. Lee; J. W. Jay Tompkins; S. D. Gordon McBurney; J. D. Claude McCain; S. S. Roy McCain; J. S. C. R. DeWitt; Sec—Dr. E. R. McClintock; Treas—E. A. McCain; D. of C.—A. A. H. Margison; Tyler—A. A. Milbury.

Mrs. Mary Harold, relict of the late Everett Harold, died at the residence of her daughter, Nellie, on Wednesday. Deceased who was Miss Mary Whitney before marriage had reached the advanced age of 86 years. Most of this long life had been spent with her husband and family at East Centreville. For the past two or three years she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Owens. She leaves to mourn, one son, W. R. Harold of Centreville, and three daughters, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. McIntyre of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Wm. Wiggin of Seattle, Wash. The remains arrived by Valley on Thursday night, and the funeral services conducted by the Rev. H. R. Bell were held from the home of her son, W. R. Harold, on Friday, with interment in the family lot in the U. B. cemetery.

Just as the first dawning rays ushered in the bright New Year, a bright and happy soul passed on from the presence of Mrs. John MacKenzie, nee Miss Jennie Scholey, at her home at King Street, Fredericton. Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Henry T. and Emily Scholey and was born at Centreville 27 years ago. After spending her girlhood days in her native town she was married to John MacKenzie, of the Crown Land Department, Fredericton. In spite of failing health for the past year or more, she bore up bravely and only consented to suffer being bedridden some time ago, fearing the dread plague of our northern clime made its strides, resulting in her death on New Year's morning. She leaves to mourn her early passing, her husband, John MacKenzie, her

COLEMAN W. LUNN

Many friends of Coleman W. Lunn were greatly shocked to learn of his sudden death which took place at his late home at Summerfield on Sunday, December 19. Mr. Lunn had been greatly burdened with affliction in his family. The youngest child contracted pneumonia and scarcely had he recovered when his oldest daughter, Kathleen, was taken ill. After a life of much suffering her physician decided that an operation was necessary. On the morning of the operation Mr. Lunn was taken ill. Pneumonia developed, and notwithstanding all efforts to restore him, he moved to the home beyond from which no travellers return in the forty-fourth year of his age. The deceased was born at Summerfield on February 5, 1878, where he resided and engaged in agricultural pursuits his entire life.

Mr. Lunn was one of the most esteemed and highly respected citizens of the county. He was widely known and dearly beloved. By his kindly disposition, jovial nature and gentle spirit he readily made friends wherever he went. For many years he was an honored member of the Methodist church, taking an active part in every good work in the interest of the church and the community in which he lived. He leaves to mourn, his wife and seven children—five sons and two daughters, also five brothers: Bert and Harry of Waterville, Me., Kilburn, Woodstock, Everett, Corporation, Morley, Williamstown, N. B., besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted in the church and at the grave by Rev. Dr. R. Chowen. The large concourse of people that attended bore evidence to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

Mrs. Amy G. Tompkins—

Dear Friend and Sister:

The Nightingale Lodge No. 244 of East Florenceville wish to extend to you their sincere sympathy in the loss of your dear father. The community will feel the loss in no small measure for he was a kind friend and neighbor and also a member of the W.M.F. Local Orange Lodge of their place.

When you find the days dark and lonely may you still feel yourself to be the centre of great love realizing that God is over and on either side of you—wherever are the everlasting wings.

Mother—Mrs. Emily Scholey, three sisters—Mrs. Margaret Hamm, Mrs. Helen Sabine and Mrs. Annie Belter of Vancouver, B. C., and two brothers, Foster of Calgary, and Don of Vancouver, B. C., two half-brothers, Chan of Seattle, Wash., and Herwick of Dawson City and one half-sister, Mrs. J. C. Justice of Walham, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Burt, close friends of Mrs. Scholey, kindly donated the use of their home for the funeral services which were held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. conducted by Rev. C. R. Chapman. Following this, a burial was made in the family lot in the Episcopal cemetery. Many floral offerings beokened the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

We are sorry to lose our jeweler, Peter Violette. Owing to the press of business in their Hartland store he was obliged to close up his business here the last of the year and devote his attention to the home store.

J. W. McLean spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week in Woodstock on business.

Frank MacKenzie left on Wednesday for Minto to operate a picture house in that place.

Mrs. G. J. Birrell and children left on Saturday for Fort Fairfield after a week with relatives here and Lakeville.

Evangelistic services were begun here on Sunday with three services in the U. B. church all addressed by Rev. H. R. Bell.

The Misses Fay and Damey Burt spent New Year's at Grand Falls the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bishop at the Curlew Hotel.

Mrs. Clara Cochrane and son Jack were the guests last week of Earl R. Stiles at his home here.

On January 8 services in U. B. church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Mr. Lee Good will preach. Service at Corveil on January 8 at 3 p.m. will be conducted by Service Band from Centreville.

We hope to see you soon again in the Lodge where you have been missed during the last few months. May the New Year bring you prosperity and may its bells ring a new peace and joy in your heart and life such as you have not known before.

Yours Fraternally

Mrs. Roland Sample
Mrs. Wm. Bernham
Miss Muriel Hunter
