Presin an interesting address in St. Paul's Church, warned the Christian missionary world that in ten years the opsionary word that in ten years the op-portunity of amending their missionary policy in Japan would not be available. The Christian world still looked upon the Jap as a heathen in the savage sense, and did not recognize his wonder-ful intelligence. Christianity had been tacked on to education and civilization in Japan, the native missionaries were underpaid, and the cause was losing ground. He asked the western world to ground. ## HOW TO GET RICH.

Do you want to get rich quick Do you want to make a hundred per sent. upon your investment Do you want to own diamonds galore, sport automobiles, motor boats or palatial yachts? Do you want to possess the magical touch of Midss and turn the basest of mundane things into gold? Do you want to remulate the magicial and pluck real money out of thin air? Of course you do. Everybody wants more money; the man who has fifty cents wants a dollar; the man who has a thousand wants to double his money; and the multi-millionaire sighs for more stocks and bends and railroads. It is human nature to want more. So, if you are interested in get-rich-quick schemes, lis-ten, as the comic opera funny man would say.

It really is very simple, this getting rich. One needs very little capital to start in business, and once started the returns roll. What is more, there is no hazard in this form of investment. There is no danger of losing the capital invested. It is safe, sane and conservative. Briefly, the plan is this: Invest in a ring—a gold ring. Hold this ring in your left hand and rub it with your right. Now, if you think intently of the ring as you rub it, creating in your mind an exact image of the metal circle, lo! in your hand will appear a second gold ring. The method is really very simple. All one has to do is to create All one has to do is to mind-stuff a perfect picture of the st ring. Then into denser matter is in mind-stuff a perfect picture of the first ring. Then into denser matter is projected this metal image, guided by the power of will and thought. The intense thought starts electric currents in the ether and these electric currents.

start the materialization. And there you it is the simplest thing in the If you can materialize gold rings

It is all a matter of belief in theosophy, and the method described is vouched for by Mrs. Annie Besant, the President of the Theosophical Society and world-leader of the mystic cult. Mrs. Besant says that Madame Blavatsky was able to create a gold ring simply by the power of the imagination, and in her Boston lecture the other evening Mrs. Besant declared that any one with a sufficiently strong imagination and power of concentration could do the same thing. It really is a very simple thing, but before taking up the necessary training in mental gymnastics a thorough course of sleight of hand is suggested. A little eleverness in palming would save a good deal of wear and tear on the mental apparatus. Even the great Blavatsky did not disdain a knowledge of the arts of the charlatan, and so elever was she in the practice of legerderman that she became the leger of of the arts of the charlatan, and so clever was she in the practice of legerdemain that she became the leader of a cult. Oh, yes, there is money in this mental projection scheme, even if you have to buy both rings; for when you can do the trick cleverly enough to escape detection, you, too, can fare forth as a prophet of the occult. Mystic cults possess a fascination for many people, and their leaders and prophets never want for followers and audiences. And what is more to the purpose the gate receipts are large enough to be attractive.

Father Cuts Short Their Attempt to See the World.

Delmar, Del., Oct. 9 .- To

Delmar, Del., Oct. 9.— To see the world, Elwood Bailey, aged 17, and Elwood Ford, aged about 23, both of Clayton, started out on a freight train coming south. Bailey, who is a son of W. Y. Bailey, a well-known railroad man, was furnishing the cash and Ford the experience.

Young Bailey's father was informed about his boy leaving home and started after him, arriving here just half an hour after his boy had departed on a fast freight. He, however, telegraphed Cape Charles to look out for the pair, and upon their arrival this morning they were caught, and Bailey followed to Cape Charles to bring his son home.
