

Secular Department.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The English Mail which arrived at Halifax per A. M. S. America, on Friday the 11th inst. was received here on Monday night. Below will be found a summary of the news up to the 25th ult.

GRAND BRITAIN.

The domestic news is destitute of any feature of striking interest. The most remarkable thing in the country is the progress of the winter, towards which the weather has been unusually kind, and the effects are being made in other quarters to revise the trade in ribbons, by which the operations of the city live. The winter, however, has been unusually kind, and the effects are being made in other quarters to revise the trade in ribbons, by which the operations of the city live.

It is rumored again that the Victoria is to be abolished in Ireland. So far at least as the Irish Government is concerned, it is not probable that it will be attended with greater success than the last effort. Lord Palmerston was strong enough to strangle the East India Bill in the House of Commons, and he is not likely to fall in the minor chair. Hitherto, the Victoria in Dublin Castle has been a source of irritation, and will continue as long as the office exists. Perhaps an Irishman would be better off without it, and it is not probable that it will be attended with greater success than the last effort.

The Board of Trade returns exhibit the commerce of the country in a highly favorable light. Our exports reach nearly seven millions per month, and this is a new record for the year. The year's produce is to be much more extensive, in a commercial sense, than in any previous year. In a commercial sense, the year's produce is to be much more extensive, in a commercial sense, than in any previous year.

The interest which the House has excited two or three months back has been revived during the last few days by a new proposition that has excited a good deal of attention throughout the country, and has been received in England with feelings of burning indignation. In the former it was proposed that the House should be empowered to pass a resolution in which it should express its disapproval of the conduct of the British Government in the Crimea, and that it should also express its disapproval of the conduct of the British Government in the Crimea.

Our despatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea. The Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea.

The announcement in the Monitor that the system of conscription in France will be abolished is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The correspondence of the Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850. The Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850.

The Constitution contains an article which shows that the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war. It is significant as showing the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

THE TRADE WITH CHINA.

Johns Hopkins, in a letter to the Rev. Dr. Estlin, informs him of the situation and publication of the treaty with China, and of the march of the army to Peking. The treaty with China, and of the march of the army to Peking.

Another despatch contains the interesting and detailed narrative of Mr. Parker during his captivity. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The remains of Dr. Norman, Anderson, and Bowley were recognized. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Our despatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea.

The announcement in the Monitor that the system of conscription in France will be abolished is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The correspondence of the Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850. The Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850.

The Constitution contains an article which shows that the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war. It is significant as showing the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Nowfoundland.

A letter dated Saint John's Jan. 8, 1861 says:—This country is in a most wretched state. The population of the island, exclusive of Bay St. George and the French Shore, is about 100,000, and the ordinary sum distributed for the relief of the poor is $100,000. This year however, the amount will scarcely suffice to prevent actual starvation.

Another despatch contains the interesting and detailed narrative of Mr. Parker during his captivity. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The remains of Dr. Norman, Anderson, and Bowley were recognized. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Our despatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea.

The announcement in the Monitor that the system of conscription in France will be abolished is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The correspondence of the Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850. The Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850.

The Constitution contains an article which shows that the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war. It is significant as showing the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

General Government.

A letter dated Saint John's Jan. 8, 1861 says:—This country is in a most wretched state. The population of the island, exclusive of Bay St. George and the French Shore, is about 100,000, and the ordinary sum distributed for the relief of the poor is $100,000.

Another despatch contains the interesting and detailed narrative of Mr. Parker during his captivity. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The remains of Dr. Norman, Anderson, and Bowley were recognized. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Our despatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea.

The announcement in the Monitor that the system of conscription in France will be abolished is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The correspondence of the Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850. The Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850.

The Constitution contains an article which shows that the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war. It is significant as showing the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

THE GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE.

The National Dispensary, established in the year 1840, is now in its 21st year, and has during that period, by the use of John's Female Pills, cured more than 100,000 cases of the most distressing female ailments.

Another despatch contains the interesting and detailed narrative of Mr. Parker during his captivity. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The remains of Dr. Norman, Anderson, and Bowley were recognized. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Our despatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has been ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea, and that he has also ordered to send a fleet of 100 gun-boats to the Crimea.

The announcement in the Monitor that the system of conscription in France will be abolished is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The correspondence of the Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850. The Herald says that the war-like preparations of France are on a far larger scale than at any time since 1850.

The Constitution contains an article which shows that the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war. It is significant as showing the interest of Austria lies in selling Venetia rather than having the peril of war.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

The Grand Victoria's report on the Russian mission has been published in the Monitor. It is a source of great interest to the British public. It is a source of great interest to the British public.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.

Advertisement for a health product, mentioning 'The Great Female Medicine' and 'John's Female Pills'.