Many Mourn for Governor Fraser

All Glasses at the Funeral—Prominent Men Pay Last Tribute of Respect—Twenty-Five Clergymen, Politicians and Business Men at Ceremony.

New Glasgow, Sept. 29—Slowly through the streets of his native town, which mourns the death of its distinguished son, the body of the late Duncan C. Fraser, Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia, was conveyed this afternoon to its last resting place in the family lot at Riverside cemetery.

New Glasgow mourns deeply for the departed governor and the long procession through the streets this afternoon will long be remembered by those who thronged the route of the cortege. The funeral of Governor Fraser was the largest ever seen in New Glasgow, representative of the masses as well as the classes. In the cortege were men from every branch of life. As early as yesterday distinguished men of the province arrived in New Glasgow to pay their last respects to the dead governor. The spacious residence of the late Harvey Graham, brother-in-law of Governor Fraser, where the body lay, was the centre of the thoughts of New Glasgow citizens and visitors, and hundreds of friends viewed the body that lay encased in the simple black coffin in the large drawing room.

Immediately after the service those who wished to see the governor's face passed through the drawing room to the coffin. When the hearse having the body of Governor Fraser had passed the top of Provost street, the carriages in the procession had not all left the Harvey Graham residence, a quarter of a mile distant. In the procession were twenty-five clergymen, representing the various churches and denominations of the province, followed by representatives of the grand lodge of Free Masons of Nova Scotia. Following the Masons were members of the local legislature. The dominion parliament was represented by William Chisholm, M. P., Antigonish; Senator Ross, Halifax; Senator McSweeney, Moncton, and D. D. McKenzie. Following were the judges of the supreme court, including Chief Justice Townsend, ex-Chief Justice Sir Robert Wetherbee, Judge Drydale and Judge Meagher of the county court. General Drury, of Halifax, represented the governor of Quebec being represented by Col. Fages; Commissioner Coombes, of the Salvation Army, was represented by Staff Capt. Jennings.
