

THE NICKEL.

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY.

A FEAST OF PICTURES.

Gaumont Film de Luxe,
A MAN OF HONOR

Being an excellent adaptation from the celebrated French Romance, 'A Poor Young Man.' The scene showing Pierre's leap from the Tower at Savoy is one of the finest situations in this engrossing photo-play.

The Secret of the Forest.

That Period of the History of France which marks the Reign of Terror forms the background for a very thrilling melo-drama by the Gaumont Company. One very vivid glimpse at the French Revolution is given, and several phases of the great struggle between the aristocrats and the canaille are splendidly produced.

The Golden Supper.

A Biograph story of the Elizabethan Era.

The Plain Song.

The life recital of a simple country maiden, who is lured by the glamour of the stage, but realizes in time that the love of her faithful rural boy is better than the attractions of the world. A beautiful film story—cleverly handled by the Biograph players.

The Tribulations of Mr. Jiggers.

This delightful little comedy tells a most amusing tale of a young man who is disappointed in matrimonial affairs, and takes an unique method of arranging matters.

Marie Corelli Talks "Right Up"

To the Rev. R. J. Campbell of "The New Theology" fame, in what she considers an unfair attack on her new book, "The Life Everlasting," Miss Corelli says, "That while preaching in the City Temple, London, he deliberately slanders both myself and my work without compassion. He says there is a certain strain of hard, bitter and intolerant depravity running all the way through it, and I challenged him to prove it. Far from any hard or unsympathetic feeling towards human depravity, I endeavour to show how it may be lessened and finally overcome by one's own noble effort when once we realize the eternal law—that evil is always repaid by evil and good by good. . . ."

Every person interested in good fiction and in the social conditions of the people should read "The Life Everlasting." Paper, 60c.; cloth, 75c. Postpaid on receipt of price.

All books by Miss Marie Corelli and the Rev. R. J. Campbell now in stock. Write for list, also for lists of 10, 15, 25 and 30 cent reprints of the world's best novels.
