Worth-While Novels JUST IN.

Delia Blanchflower—Mrs. Humphrey Ward.
This is probably the most powerful and important story Mrs. Humphrey Ward has written; certainly it is the most fascinating and entralling. Her vast circle of admirers will be delighted in making the acquaintance of her new heroine, Delia Blanchflower, a wilful, perplexing, but quite delicious young woman of a type almost new to fiction.

The Holy Flower—H. Rider Haggard.
A new record of stirring adventure in wildest Africa by the famous hunter and explorer, Allan Quatermain, telling his story of a perilous mission into unknown country in the days before his remarkable experiences which are now historical in the pages of "King Solomon's Mines" and other famous books.

A Lovers' Tale—Maurice Hewlett.
A fascinating romance in which this brilliant author returns, more completely than in either of his recent works, to the manner of his earlier romances, "The Forest Lovers" and other books which now rank as classics of English fiction.
Joseph Hocking's latest novel, "The Day of Judgment"; cloth 80c.
Ralph Connor's great story, "The Patrol of the Sundance Trail"; paper 60c., cloth 80c.
"My Wife's Hidden Life." Who wrote it? Is it true? It grips as only the truth can. Only a few copies, 30c. each.

And five hundred more new books at 50c., 60c. and 80c. each. Come in and see them now, our store is a Reader's Paradise.

W. P. A.

With the 30th of April, the work parties at Government House will cease. After that date the work-room will be open Monday afternoons only, from 3 until 5 o'clock, when work will be given out to any ladies desiring it, and the finished work will be received.
Will all those who have taken out work during the winter kindly bring it to Government House any Monday afternoon during the month of May?
There are a number of workers whose names are not recorded in the W. P. A. member's book. Will these ladies hand their names in as soon as possible, as Lady Davidson is anxious to have a complete list of all those attending work parties, and also ladies working for societies and in their own homes? apr27.28.30.may3.5.7
