

Baron Anselm de Rothschild, who died recently at his country seat, near Vienna possessed wealth estimated at more than $200,000,000. By his express desire his funeral was celebrated with any pomp the hearse was drawn by two horses, and followed only by a few servants.

A French court has decided that a man may not trade under his own name when that name is manifestly used to induce the public to think it is that of an old established firm. Most a Dutchman was selling champagne, using the brand "Moet & Co.," which the well known firm "Moet & Chandon," proved had led the people to believe was their wine. The Court ordered Moet to discontinue using the title on his wines, and fined him $7,000 damages.

According to an official return lately published, there are 900,000 acres of common lands in England and Wales which are suitable for ordinary cultivation. There are also nearly 1,500,000 common lands, chiefly mountainous, which are unfit for cultivation, although much might be improved for pasturage. Wales, although much smaller in extent, has considerably more common land than England.

The Rev. S. J. Johnson, an English clergyman and amateur astronomer, has calculated the most notable eclipses which will occur in the next few hundred years. There will be an eclipse of the sun total in the northern part of England on July 21, in the year 2381, but none total at London for the next five centuries.

A short time ago a child was born in Ameliasburg, Prince Edward County, Ontario, who had one great-great-grandfather, two great-grandmothers, and two grandmothers; making, in all, five living grandmothers to the child. The mother of the child is sixteen, and one grandmother is only thirty-two.

When they tried to force Miss Gay, of Independence, Missouri, into a marriage against her will, she kicked the minister's hat off, knocked the young man down, and rode off on a mule, with one foot on each side of him.

Special Notices.

THE RECENT CASE OF DEATH by strychnine poisoning from taking SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES, noticed in the Montreal Daily Witness of August 1st, renders great caution necessary not to confound Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of PHOSPHATES and Calcevia with COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES. Observe well the difference in orthography and bear in mind that medicinal there is no similarity in action or effect.

PHOSPHATES
ARE ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY to sustain life, being an element of every solid and fluid of the body, and they are irreplaceable of injurious results at any period from infancy to old age, or under any possible condition of the system, and no more harm can result from taking more than the prescribed dose than from eating a hearty dinner.
