

Mr. Harvey Hood
Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

"Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts. For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, and I could not work and could scarcely walk."

I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been cured.

At Death's Door
but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and

Brutal Boxing Match at Coney Island.
ATHLETICS. New York.

A BRUTAL EXHIBITION.
CONEY ISLAND, Dec. 28.—A large crowd of spectators assembled here to-night to witness the boxing under the auspices of the Coney Island A. C. The event of the evening was a finish fight between Billy Plimmer, of England, champion bantam of the world, and Joe McGrath, champion of the world, who fought for a purse of $2,500, the winner to take $2,000. Plimmer was a strong favorite among betting men. The fight commenced about 10:30 p.m. Plimmer had the best of the fight all the way through and knocked McGrath about as he pleased. In round 8 Plimmer tried to bring the fight to a hasty finish and showered blow after blow upon his opponent, but McGrath was not to be so easily defeated. He was knocked down repeatedly, but bobbed up each time before he was counted out. It was so extremely brutal that the crowd yelled "Take him off!" and out of pure charity Jimmy Carroll threw up a sponge. Peter Maher distinguished himself by running away from McGrath's corner in the sixth round. McGrath got mad at his seconds for throwing up the sponge.

THE TURF.
A London cablegram says: Should Mrs. Langley's illness terminate fatally her horse Milford would be ineligible for next year's Derby. This would have but a small effect on the racing world, as Milford does not show to advantage in races over five furlongs. But if Abington Baird, who is also ill, should die, then his horse Meddler must be struck out, a much more important matter, as Isinglass would then become such a favorite as was Ormonde before he was tampered with last spring.

During the 26 days racing at Washington Park, Chicago, next year $210,000 will be given in added money to stakes and purses.

Lynching in Kentucky.
POWELL, Ky., Dec. 28.—At 11:35 o'clock, before the court adjourned for dinner, a mob of 1,000 men, armed with shotguns and Winchester, took the alleged (colored) assassin of Miss Anderson from the officers at the court house where he was having his examination. He was dragged along by men who had him by the arms. The mob took him to the fair grounds, where, after swinging him up to a tree his body was riddled with bullets.

Drunk While the Babies Shivered.
BOSTON, Dec. 28.—The police were called to 22 Minda street, Roxbury, by a fight last night. They found John Tusther lying on the floor with his skull fractured and his wife dead drunk in the next room. John and Michael Gately, also drunk, were asleep in chairs. Five small children, the eldest but 7 years of age, were huddled about a stove, in which there was scarcely a vestige of fire. Tusther will die and the Gatelys are under arrest.
