Annual Meeting of the Canadian Press Association.

Recommendations of the Executive Committee-Election of Officers.

(Special to The Advertiser, per G. N. W. Line.)

Toronto, Feb. 4 .- The annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association opened this morning at the Board of Trade building. President J. Brierly occupied the chair. The feature of the morning was the president's address. Mr. Brierly's main point was a proposition for the reimposition of postage on newspapers which is held to be necessary in the interests of legitimate newspapers. The executive committee's report recommended the reduction of the admission fee from $5 to $3. The statement was also made that the member ship is now greater than ever before. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Major J. B. Mc-Lean, Montreal; vice-president, Robt. Holmes, New Era, Clinton; second vice-president, W. S. Dingman, Herald, Stratford; secretary-treasurer, John A. Cooper, Canadian Magazine, Toassistant secretary-treasurer, Otter Colquhoun, Toronto.
