

For Purity, Strength and Flavor

It is superior to the highest grade Japan tea.

CEYLON TEA.
Green same flavor as Japan, only more delicious. It is to the Japan tea drinker what "SALADA" black is to the black tea drinker.

A STERLING HEART.

"You have said some rather sharp things to me," she remarked. "But, truly, I do not believe that you are quite so acid as you appear. I am afraid that your former companions have not been so kind or respectful as they ought to have been."

"My child, you should have been more patient, instead of saying, 'But, truly,

"I am sorry," Shirley impulsively interposed, in a tone that was full of sympathy in this confession.

"I believe you are right," said madame, with a softened gleam in her eyes. "That had the ring of truth in it, and you look as if you mean what you say. Now, they all pretend to think a great deal of me here; but, between you and me, I believe if Anne, Felix, and I were to go away, they might go begging for kind words and polite attentions."

"Shirley felt very uncomfortable to be made a candidate for private matters, and, being in doubt as to the wisdom of making any reply, she left her seat and went to the window, where she found her companions' silence, and I'm sure I don't know why I have run on in this way to a child of a girl like you, who are eagerly searched the sweet, downcast face before her.

"I shall be satisfied with that amount, and I will do the best I can for you," said Shirley, lifting her clear, frank eyes to the aged face, and turning it away toward the window, where she saw the woman's heart broken she would feel more than repaid for any service she might render her.

"Here!" exclaimed Shirley, flushing crimson with dismay at the thought of coming there to Mr. Norwood's house to be introduced to his daughter by his naughty daughter as she had been only a short time previous.

"She was greatly relieved by madame's reply.

"No," she said. "I have engaged rooms at the hotel, and you will come to me there tomorrow at ten, as I shall need your assistance in shopping. We shall start for St. Sauveur one week from tonight."

"Shirley's heart and courage sank a little at this information, as she thought of leaving home so soon; but she was not one to turn back, after once having made up her mind to any course, so she remarked cheerfully as she arose to take her leave:

"Very well, Madame Marton, I will come to you, as you desire, at the Hoffman, tomorrow, although I fear I shall be of very little service to you in a shopping expedition."

"Why?" inquired her companion.

"Because I know almost nothing about costly and fashionable fabrics," Shirley smilingly replied, "for all my life I have been obliged to use only the most inexpensive and of the simplest kind."

"Well, at all events, you have good taste, and that is more than many rich people possess," said madame, who had looked appreciatively over the quaint figure before her.

"Shirley was surprised at this speech, for it was really the only gracious remark she had made during their interview."

"Thank you," she said, brightly. "I believe I have an eye for color and effect, and I will gladly give you the benefit of my judgment in these respects."

"But," with a glance at the handsome pearl and gold clock on the wall, she said, "I must go now, if I am to catch the next train back to town," while she was more relieved than she had been before to know that she was not doomed to spend the coming week in that house.

"It is almost lunch time, and as I have kept you waiting so long, I will ring for some refreshment for you," she said, con-siderately, for she was always considerate of the physical comfort of her servants, if she was not thoughtful of their mental and spiritual needs.

"Thanks, no," Shirley replied. "I shall be at home in time for my own lunch." Then she took a glass of wine, which she had ordered, and she reached out her hand toward the bell.

"Shirley had hard work to keep her face from telling tales at this unheard-of proposition, while she wondered if madame was in the habit of offering her servants wine."

"Excuse me," she politely responded,
"but I never take anything of the kind." I am in perfect health, and do not need it."

IN THE COURTS

Charges Against a Sewing-Machine Agent Fall Through—A Kidnapping Case.

Windsor, April 11.—At the Sandwich spring assizes, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of George S. Bliss, accused of a kidnapping case. Bliss was the Essex county agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Company. The defense showed that the defendant had used a large amount of the money in transacting the company's business.

James Allan, jun., of Amherstburg, was convicted of kidnapping, but was let go on suspended sentence.

Bliss was committed last summer at Amherstburg, when the young son of Sol. White, jun., was kidnapped from home and taken to Wyandotte, Mich.
(so it is alleged) by the mother of the child, who was divorced from Mr.
White. Young Allan was accused of having assisted the woman to secure possession of the child.

FINE REDUCED.
Toronto, Ont., April 11.—Judges Oster and Ferguson this morning, acting as an election court, reduced the penalty inflicted upon Mr. W. H.
Thomas, Oshawa, convicted of bribery in the South Ontario bye-election of 1908, from $400 and $200 costs to $200 and costs. A number of the others fined at that time had their fines reduced afterwards, and Mr. Thomas is now included.

MORE PINOS SURRENDER.
Washington, April 11.—The war department this morning received the following cablegram: "Manila, April 11.—Col. Arce surrendered Castillojos yesterday with 335 soldiers, 12 officers and arms. This and the surrender of Col. Alva at Olanapo, April 8, with 15 officers, 394 men and 92 rifles, frees Battain, Zambores Provinces. (Signed) MacArthur."

Tired Out

And she does not understand why. Her work used to seem so easy. You could tell her whereabouts as she worked by the snatches of song which now and again overflowed her happy lips. And now she can hardly keep up. Her head pains, her back hurts, and she feels entirely worn out.

What is the matter?
The probability is that the stomach is disordered, the liver is not performing its whole duty. Tomatoes are accumulating in the blood, and unless these are removed,
and the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition cured and strengthened, there is liable to be a serious illness. There is no medicine can cure Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for prompt help and perfect cure for diseases of the stomach and bowels. It cures the stomach, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and brings back the happy days of health, when life is all song and sunshine.

"I suffered ten months from a complicated case of liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, suppression of monthly function, and kidney disease, too," writes Mrs. Lela M. Little, of Ivor, Va. "I also suffered excruciating pain in my back and head. I am glad to say that six bottles of Golden Medical Discovery, three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and two bottles of Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla cured me entirely. I gladly recommend Dr.
Pierce's medicines to all sufferers."

FISTIC.
THE TORONTO TOURNAMENT.
Toronto, April 12.—The preliminary bouts in the amateur boxing championship contests of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union took place last night at the Mutual street rink under the management of the Argonaut Club, before a large gathering. The contestants were mostly young boxers, who exchanged sturdy blows, brought blood sometimes, but many of them were guiltless of any knowledge of defense. The contests will be continued today and Saturday. Following were the results of the fights last night:

Bantam class, 105 pounds—C. G. Godwin, "B" Bicycle Club, Toronto, beat Bert Joslin, Jubilee Athletic Club, Toronto; J. Rowlands, "A" Athletes, Club, Toronto, beat Bert Gale, Riverside Club, Toronto; A. L. Hewitt, Toronto Lacrosse Club, beat Douglas Hallam, Toronto Boxing Club.

Featherweight class, 126 pounds—Thos. McCarthy, Ontario A. C., Toronto, beat Ben Milne, "B" Bicycle Club; Wm. Harrison, R. C. B. C. Toronto, beat T. Hanley, Shamrock A. C., Montreal. The winner of the very lively bout, Claude Aisthorp, Toronto Boxing Club, beat Arthur Edmunds, National Baseball Club.

Lightweight class, 135 pounds—Vivian Austin, Canadian champion, Ottawa, beat Wm. Fellows, Toronto Boxing Club; Harry Bremner, "B" Bicycle Club, beat Louisa B. Arthur, Toronto Boxing Club. This bout took four rounds to determine the winner.

There are quite a number of out-of-town competitors still to box.

POLICE INTERFERED.
Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Tom Couhig, of Dunkirk, N. Y., was Wednesday night given the decision over Eddie Connolly, of New Brunswick, in the eleventh round of a twenty-round bout. Connolly was all but out when the police stopped the fight. Before the Connolly-Couhig fight it was announced that the winner would meet Matty Matthews before the Monarch Club on April 29 for the welterweight championship of the world. Announcement was also made that the winner of the Dave Sullivan and Jack Mc-Clelland fight, before the Southern Athletic Club, on April 29, would meet Terry McGovern in this city on Mc-Govern's return from the Pacific coast, under the auspices of the Southern A. C. The details are said to have been closed last night with McGovern.

ATHLETICS.
THE INTERNATIONAL GAMES.
London, April 12.—The reply of Oxford and Cambridge to the challenge of Harvard and Yale for a series of track games this summer agrees that New York should be the place of meeting and that the programme should be the same as in 1899, except that the three-mile run be changed into a two-mile run. Only those eligible to enter the inter-collegiate sports of 1901 are to be eligible to take part in this contest. Both the English athletes have rejected the proposed programme, and the programme from nine to eleven events on the ground that the pole vault and 220-yard high hurdles are not in vogue in the Oxford and Cambridge sports, and that the putting the weight, which events Harvard and Yale suggested two be chosen to increase the programme, has been reluctantly included in the Oxford and Cambridge reports. It is also pointed out that an increase in the programme would mean a more numerous team and heavier expenses, and it would be more satisfactory to have a return meeting with exactly the same events as decided at the Queen's Club in 1899. It is hoped the Americans will agree to have the match the last part of September.

BASEBALL.
The Bisons have already won the Eastern League championship in the minds, and Franklin has issued a challenge to play a series with the winner of the American League the coming season. Groves, of the Milwaukee, informed the Buffalo that the Brewers will play him a series of games for $1,000 to $5,000 whether they win the championship or the leather medal.

Toronto Telegram: Toronto ball team has straightened away to practice down in New Jersey, and, as usual, the reports are most promising.
However, a better game on their play will be got on Friday and Saturday, when they play the Philadelphia team.
Montreal team in the meantime is going right ahead getting beaten by everybody it meets, and, laying up trouble for other teams after the regular season opens. These be the rainy days of baseball, when every player of every club is full of hope, but the day will come when they will see the bad boy in the bleachers all surgest that that hope has turned to prunes.

Reidy, the Milwaukee pitcher, is made of the Milwaukee and if all players were like him baseball would stand very much higher in the estimation of the public than it does just at present. According to a Milwaukee dispatch, a well-known National League manager last week approached Reidy with a big offer to jump his contract. Reidy, without mincing words with the master of the bribe, gave him five minutes by the watch to leave his presence or stand for a good licking.

The Guelph management are in receipt of scores of letters from players offering to come to Guelph from Canada and the States on very liberal terms.

STRONG INDEPENDENT TEAM.
"Knotty" Lee, the ex-Torontonian has been appointed manager of the Guelph club. He claims to have signed the following players: Catcher, Bill O'Brien, of last year's Crescents; infielders, Dinney Burke, of Brantford; Bill Roden, of last year's Guelph team; Curley Ross, of last year's Crescents; W. Lockhead, of Bay City, Mich.; P. Brennan, of Toronto; Tom Boucher, W. Barker, S. Dorrie, of Guelph, and expects to open the season with the fastest independent team in Canada.

Joe Kostal, formerly of London, has accepted the flattering offer of the Denver club, and will report at once.
Manager Bates is beginning to corral his men. Joe has no time to lose from now out.

THE TORONTO TEAM.
Patterson, N. J., April 12.—The Toronto team yesterday enjoyed the first spring day since they have been here and had a good day's practice. Some of the boys are still sore and stiff.

Hargrove won't be able to play today, but he is fast getting well.
The team leaves for Philadelphia tomorrow morning for two games there. It is expected that Carr will play all three days and take part in both games.

PRACTICE GAMES.
Philadelphia (Pa.), April 12.—Yale 3, Philadelphia (American) 4. Eleven inning.

At Philadelphia—R. H. E.

THE WHEEL.
McLeod WILL DEFEND TITLE.
Victoria, B. C., April 9.—Angus Mc-Leod, of Sarnia, has passed the word along that he will this year defend his title to the Canadian bicycling championships over two and four mile distances, and while not in training he looks well able to repeat his performances at the Ottawa race meet of last year. During the fine weather of three weeks ago McLeod commenced to do a little rough work, but the coming of the rain put a stop to this. He stated yesterday afternoon that he expected to leave here for the latter part of May, and from there he would leave to attend the Canadian championships. Prior to departure for Buffalo McLeod will get up a little strength on the Brockton Track and will leave his finishing touches till he arrives in the east, where track accommodation is somewhat better than here. In the event of the championships being pulled off either at Brantford or the Guelph will be satisfied, as both tracks are
