LONDON HONORS MR. CHAMBERLAIN

Brilliant Gathering Congratulates the Secretary

In a Speech He Says the Boers Will Be Loyal to Their New Government.

London, March 20. - Colonial Secretary Chamberlain today received the city of London's congratulations on his mission to South Africa in the Guildhall, where Lord Mayor Samuel and the corporation presented him with an address of welcome in the presence of a large gathering of distinguished rement. presentatives of politics, the services, art, science, the church, the law and the drama. Among those present were ating talk in the congregaion, as it is Premier Balfour, most of the cabinet ministers, the Archbishop of Canter-bury, Lord Roberts, the Duke of Fife, ized within the church's walls. the Duke of Argyll, Lord Strathcona, Lord Lister, Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, Signor Marconi, Sir Thomas Lipton and Sir Henry Irving. Many ladies also were present to extend greet-ings to Mr. Chamberlain. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, who drove to the Guildhall in an open landau, received a remarkable welcome from the expectant crowds, who, in their enthusiasm here and there, broke through the police lines and surrounded the carriage.

The lord mayor, lady mayoress and the corporation officers met Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain in the library, where procession was formed, headed by trumpeters, and proceeded to the gally beflagged Guildhall, in which the adiress eulogizing the secretary's services in South Africa, was presented. Loud and prolonged cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs, greeted Mr. Chamberlain on his rising to reply. The secrerecent speech at Southampton. Asserted That Chamberlain Not Consent to the Necessary Grant.

London, March 20.-There are persistent and apparently well-grounded rumors of cabinet dissensions over the Irish land bill. It is asserted that Mr. large treasury grants for covering the balance between the landlords' selling price and what the tenants think they can afford to pay. If there be truth in the reports which have come to me from Irish landlords, a Government crisis cannot be long deferred. Premier Balfour could hardly hope to carry the land bill, even with the help of the solid Nationalist vote, if Mr. Chamberlain were unwilling to identify himself with the measure, nor could Mr. Wyndham expect to satisfy either the landlords or John Redmond's followers if Mr. Chamberlain were insisting upon cutting down the grant. is probable that the rumors now in the air of the break-up of the cabisupporters of the Government caused

[From Our Own Reporter.] Toronto, March 19 .- Today's session of the Legislature was devoid of striking features. The debate on the appointment of a judicial commission was carried on by Mr. Clarke (West Northumberland) for the Government and Messrs. Carscallen (Hamilton) and Hanna (West Lambton) for the Opposition. Mr. Clarke's speech was a jocular one, and was "relievin' to the sharpness of debate," as Bret Harte puts it. Mr. Carscallen, in criticising the instructions to the judges, went over the same ground as did Mr. Whitnew yesterday, while Mr. Hanna took half an hour to lay the foundation for the body of his address which will follow tomorrow. MR. CLARKE SPEAKS. Samuel Clarke (West Northumberland) maintained that the Opposition were not safe judges to be intrusted with the inquiry into the charges made. They had prejudged the case, and were decidedly partisan. The member for Manitoulin might be above reproach, but no one had ever heard of him going around the country doing the moral reform act. Mr. Clarke was not prepared to say how far the public were justified in believing that Mr. Gamey was telling the truth, when according to his confession, he had all along been telling untruths. It might be stupidity or lack of comprehension, but at any rate there were things in the Gamey charges that he did not believe. For instance, the member for Manitoulin had stated in his charges that the Provincial Secretary had given him money and to put it plainly the speaker did not believe that assertion to be true. Then, of the money Gamey claimed to have received, he had only handed over $500. A manly or honest man would have returned it all.

Mr. Clarke, in closing, said the ma-jority of the people of the province when they got over the excitement, would approve of the investigation into the Gamey charges being conducted not by politicians, but by impartial judges, New York, March 20.-With cab and as the Government had decided.
