FIGHTING FOR A NAME

"It's downright extortion-it's a dou ble swindle!" was the wrathful retort Mrs. Wallingford looked so astonished over his excitement that he immediately pulled himself together and apologized for it.

'I beg pardon, marm," he said, "but I am rather upset by what you have told me. I am the owner of this house -there are four tenants in it, and I receive fourteen, twelve, nine and seven dollars respectively for them. I have been in Europe for the past three years, during which my business has been in the hands of an agent, who, I perceive, has been systematically robbing and oppressing my tenants."
"Can that be possible!" exclaimed
Mrs. Wallingford. "Then I have been paying three dollars a month more than
