SUMMERS BEATEN IN SEASON DEBUT

Detroit, June 23.-Eddie Summers

though Chief pitched exceptional ball and was backed by sensational fielding at times, errors came when they would give the Naps four runs and all the Tigers could pound in off West, who was even more miserly with his hits than Summers, was three tallies.

The defeat while the Athletics were winning puts the Tigers' position as league leaders in danger for the first time this year. It is now necessary for them to win to keep the lead. Should the Naps duplicate their victory today and the Athletics take a game from Boston, the world's champions would be in the lead.

New York, June 22.—The Highlanders rattled off hits pretty much as they pleased in the first two innings today and grabbed seven runs quickly. This was a safe lead, as Warhop blanked the Bostons for five innings. That was as long as the game lasted, heavy rain stopping further play. The Bostons tried to delay the finish until the rain came, but the New Yorks hustled to get out and beat them to it. Score:
