WEEKLY BRITISH COLONIST.

Witness-The books were examined and a careful investigation was made before I went to San Francisco. Having arrived at a con-clusion when I returned to Victoria I caused Mr Cruickshank to be arrested. I examined the books on my return and inspected Mr Cruickshank's private account (ledger pro-duced). I see a debit in his account to the sum of $292 50 on the 14th July. (A question relative to Mr. Franklin's account was here overruled). The deposit slip produced has the initials G. C. in the corner, which means that it is correct and the money has been received by the cashier. The cashier makes the entries in the cash book.

[Another long discussion here ensued be-tween the learned gentlemen as to the propriety of certain questions proposed to be put.] Witness continued—I found out on investigation that on the date of the slip the sum of $292 50 was paid to Mr. Franklin. The slip was an acknowledgment of the receipt of the money by the cashier.

Selim Franklin, sworn—The deposit slip produced is in my handwriting; the money was paid in to our account; $592 50 of it was paid me by Mr. Cruickshank as an instalment on purchase of three lots ; cannot say how it was paid;

Cross-examined by Mr. Ring-Mr. Cruick-shank at that time was lending money and doing a large business; there was nothing remarkable in a man paying me $592 50. Mr. Walker, re-examined—Produces Tel-ler's cash book, kept by Mr Henderson. Oross-examined by Mr Ring—Mr Cruickshank had a balance to his credit on 14th of July of $1150 on 30th June of $1280; 31st July, $1295; at the 1st August he was debtor to the bank; the loss of the $5000 will fall on myself ; I have a connection with the Guarantee Society; I am secured by them; I did not apply to them to pay me the amount; I can't say whether the Directors of the Bank have applied to the Society for the $5000 ; I am debited with the amount; I will not receive the amount at all from the Society; I cannot tell in what event the bank will receive the $5000, nor when it will be struck off my account; I have no reason to suppose that this investigation will facilitate the payment of the five thousand dollars the Society; I cannot tell whether the conviction would affect the payment of the amount; I believe I would be as liable after a conviction as now. Witness explained that when Mr. Cruickshank left the bank, his bonds were cancelled, and he doubted whether the society would hold themselves responsible; I had an opinion from the responsible; I had an opinion from the Guarantee Society on the matter, which partly influenced me in instituting these pro-ceedings; I believe the Society protects the employer or master against any robbery by his employes whom it guarantees. The bank makes up monthly statements; it pub-lishes quarterly statements in the papers according to Act of Parliament. I have heard of a mistake in October in one of the statements; I am not aware that Mr. statements ; I am not aware that Mr. Cruickshank called my attention to this mistake ; I pointed out the mistake to the Bank at home on the very first opportunity after its discovery ; it is within the range of possikeys than Mr. Henderson and Mr. Rushton, out they could not have got the money alone; I did not state that the money was taken between the 10th and 25th Jaly; it might. Mr. Cruickshank ceased to be cashier on July 25th, he Legan to be cashier on the 10th Messrs. Henderson and Rushton had not the exclusive possession of the keys at the time; Mr. Cruickshank was the first accountant; during the day time I had the outer key; at night it was given to Mr. Henderso; I may have said that no one person could open the safe alone, but I should have quali-fied it by saying if they had both keys, and knew both combinations; I have had both keys in my possession so far as opening the doors is concerned ; there are duplicate keys for the safe ; the bank was opened July 28th. I made a public loan before the bank opened; the money is checked by counting; I do not know what kind of money the $5000, was in; I reported to London that it was in $20 in; I reported to London that it was in 520 pieces, because I thought so, at the time; the money in the treasury is counted every quarter; it may be counted during the that the two clerks had been remiss with quarter by handling the bags; I can gene-rally tell by the size of the bags how much money is in them to a hundred or two; there may have been about 20 bags in the treasury at the time ; I have been in some twelve different banks, and the general way twelve different banks, and the general way of counting the money is by weighing it; our money here is not in sovereigns; we have no scale large enough to weigh $20 pieces, it is easier to count them than weigh them; it is the rule of the bank to count the money quarterly: a mistake was made at one time of $1000 which was paid in and accredited to a wrong party; the mistake was not found out till the end of the year, when it was found out by the letter acknowledging its receipt; Mr. Cruickshank assisted me, as I ordered him, in trying to find out the mistake; I never bortowed the second key and visited never borrowed the second key and visited the yault alone; it is not the fact that the cash was never counted from the time the bank opened till 1863; I did not speak in terms of the highest commendation of Mr. Gruickshank when I went home; he was not dismissed before this discovery ; the notice of dismissed before this discovery ; the notice of dismissal was certainly not given before the discovery ; I said to the directors I had no cause to suspect Mr Cruickshank ; I said so as late as April last ; Mr C. remained a very short time after his notice of dismissal and after the investigation ; in terms of Mr. Cruickshank's agreement a six months' no-tice was required on either side ; Mr C. did not decline to remain ; I do not remember his saving he would consult with his wife . his saying he would consult with his wife; very likely something passed about his re-maining, but I do not remember it. Re-examined by Mr Cary-The matter of Re-examined by Mr Cary—The matter of $1000 was thus found out; on 10th September Dietz & Nelson paid in $1000 to the credit of Dickson, Campbell & Co., on account of a bill left for collection, and at the end of the day the cashier reported to the manager that he was $1000 over in his cash; on reverting by constant handling $500 ought to be missed His Honor said that the confession itself in the weight of a bag; the loan to the Gov-had been ruled out, but what was done in enment was made before the bank was open; the box containing the money was handed to and opened by the Government; it was never placed in the safe, and I therefore required no keys; I never opered the doors alone under any circumstances; when I dis-covered this affair in the Spring I caused the prosecution to be brought soon after; I got the authority for the dismissal of Mr Cruickshank by a letter dated Se, tember 25, 1863 I had previously suspended Mr Cruickshank for drunkenness; the only money received The Great Eastern was safely moored at by the bank outside of customers was from the Noore on the 24th, where she was to re-Faulkher, Bell & Co., of San Francisco, which was counted in my presence and in the presence of the accountant, and was regularly accounted for, slips being given (slips pro duced); the initials on the slips prove the don Times says President Johnston will par-proof was held to be unnecessary.

Henry Rushton, sworn-Examined by Mr. Lenry Russion, sworn—Examined by Mr. Cary. In July I was appointed acting cath-ier; it ceased some time in the next year, long after the discovery of this loss. I held one key of the safe, Mr. Cruicksbank held one part of the time, and Henderson part of the time I believe while Cruicksbank was to be discovery of the safe, South. July The House of Lords, on motion of the Earl, of Derby, rejected by a majority of two the bill passed by the House of Commons to accountant, although he was cashier from the 10th to 25th July. I went down every morning into the vault, Mr. Headerson went down to open the door ; it was not part of our duty to touch the money ; I never parted with the key except in the day time, when I gave it to its original holder; I also went down in the evening and saw the money put away; it was only the cashier's money that was taken up and down; the money was taken out and put back by the cashier. While I was cashier I handled the cashier's money for which I was answerable, but never touched the reserve. I had no power to interfere with the senior officer, and did not watch him, as that would imply suspicion ; had the reserve and cashier's money been mixed, I should probably have noticed it ; I never knew both combinations. The cashier's balance on quarter ending September 30th, 1863, was $20,902 14.

Oross-examined by Mr. McCreight-I never lent my key to Mr. Cruickshank while was entrusted with it, and he could not therefore open the safe without another key. This concluded the evidence for the pro-ecution. Mr. Ring, addressing the jury said-the entire case was a heap of probabilities upon probabilities of He would ask how Mr. Walker or any other gentleman in the bank would feel if a jury were asked to convict. them, because it was possible that they had the tailure of negotiations between Italy of a supposititious nature. Mr. Franklin had been dragged away from his dinner, from the quiet convivality of his home, through a broiling sun to prove what? to prove that between the 10th and 25th July a sum of $500 had been paid to him by Mr. Cruick-sbank. The learned coursel dwelt upon the pumerous links wanting in the evidence upon which the inverse and the prove that between the first arrangements on the Great Eastern which the inverse and the prove that between the first arrangements on the Great Eastern which the inverse and the prove that between the first arrangements on the Great Eastern which the inverse and the prove that between the first arrangements on the Great Eastern between the first arrangements on the Great Eastern

Mr. Ring commented upon the various points that had arisen during the trial, especially cautioning the jury not to be in any way influenced by the confession which had been ruled out of Court. He asked whether the prosecution bad done their utmosi to place the best evi-dence before them? Where was Mr. Hen-derson who was shown to have possessed one their keys, and somebody had obtained access to the money. He drew attention also to the want of proof of the actual amount of coin in want of proof of the actual amount of coin in the bank and the counting of it. Mr. Ring spoke in figurative language of the thunder cloud of evidence that had been raised over his client to overwhelm him, but had burst without causing him any injury. Putting a sup-posititious case he asked if the statement DE. HELMCKEN, Speaker House of Assembly. ALLEN FRANCIS, Esq. - United States Consul; HENBY BHODES. Eeq. - H, H. M. The learned gentleman dwelt at great length on the different points, impress-ing upon the jury the duties which in his view rested upon them to fulfil, and to honorably acquit the accus d from the offence laid to his charge. His Honor summed up explaining to the jury the nature of the two counts of embezzle-ment and larceny charged in the indictment, and directing them to find whether the sum of $5060 had been taken by the accused, and appropriated to bis own use, or whether that COMMISSION MERCHANTS. importers and Wholesale Dealers Groceries, Provisions, of $5060 had been taken by the accused, and appropriated to his own use, or whether that sum had been stolen by him as charged. His Honor briefly adverted to certain points in the evidence, and left the result in the bands of the jury at 25 minutes past 10, p. m. . The jury after reciring for five minutes, returned a verdict of NOT GUILTY. The appropriet was followed by app Boots and Shoes. The announcement was followed by ap-plause, which was checked by the Sheriff.
