A hand of feminine delicacy is carefully attended to, but unadorned with rings. Skobeleff is tall; his figure is lithe. It shows an elastic, nervous organization, but no athletic muscularity. The habit of poring over books of military science, maps, and plans has induced a slight stoop.

....The late Edwin James was of a city of London family of corporation renown, his grandfather on the mother's side being Alderman Coombe, for many years city treasurer, and his father being also an officer of the corporation. Before going to the bar he was on the stage, and played Friar Lawrence with Macready, and he filled the part here on one of the benefits for the Shakspeare statute at the winter garden. His income from his Parliamentary practice for five years ranged from $35,000 to $75,000 a year. When he entered the house of commons he had to resign this practice, and the loss was the source of his difficulties. He was not successful in the house. Few lawyers are. The works of excavation on the Roman Forum have been recommenced, and it is the intention of the minister of public in-struction te continue them until the whole struction te continue them until the whole area, from the Arch of Titus to the modern municipal buildings at the base of capitoline, shall have been entirely cleared. Nothing is required beyond the removal of the two modern causeways which cross the Forum. A band of men are now busy clearing away that which passes from the Via in Miranda, by the side of the temple of Antoninus and Faustina, to the corner of the palatine, and archæologists are anxiously watching in expectation of seeing the remains of the Arch of Fabius disclosed and further light thrown on the direction of the Via Sacra. The causeway which passes in front of the Arch of Septimius Severus will also be removed, and a splendid view of the arch and of the temples of Saturn and Vespasian obtained from the level of the Forum below.

... Whatever judgment may be passed on Victor Hugo's latter work, says a writer in the London World, it must be admitted that his intellectual activity is marvellous. Even now he is up every day he works. A hearty eater, his great pleasure is the 8 o'clock, and every day he works. A hearty eater, his great pleasure is the 8 o'clock dinner, at which there are always two or three guests. Having seen everything and forgotten nothing, Victor Hugo is a wonderful talker. His souveniers emistance a whole century. Unlike Lamartine, who used to pretend that he was really born in 1790, Victor Hugo does not seak to hide his age. "I have more to do to hide his age. "I have more to do than 1 have done," said Victor Hugo to a friend only a few always ago. "It might be thought that age weakens the intellect; not the contrary, seems to grow intellect, on the contrary, seems to grow stronger, and does not resk. It seems to grow stronger, and does not resk. It seems to grow stronger, and does not resk. It seems to grow stronger, and does not resk. It seems to grow stronger, and does not resk. Being the N.  $\frac{1}{2}$  of Section 16, Township 2, Range 12, and lying between 15 and 17, which have been selling so freely. On the east end of this property will be the By-stations, and at the west end are the Flouring Mill, Hotels, Stores, Warehouses, &c. The Government have secured a block about the centre of this property for County Buildings, and the Registry Office is now in course of erection on this same property, the Government having passed an Order-in-Council directing that the Registry Office be removed here as soon as either of the projected lines of railway is completed to this point. The land in this section is the best in Manitoba, and to-day commands higher prices than anywhere else in the Province, and this is destined to be the Great Commercial Centre for Southern Manitoba. Each alternate block of this property is held by the Vice-President and other persons connected with one of the lines of railway projected through the property.
