"LOVE ME, LOVE MY DOG." Ladies and the New Dog Bylaw-Confeder ation Life Assessment Appeal Dis-missed-City Hall Notes.

A certain cruel man of the name of Thompson is conducting a crusade against the canine species. He is afflicted with a desire to curb the natural inclination of doggy to go a-wandering, and with this end in view he introduced a bylaw into the City Council when he was an alderman. The ladies of Toronto who seems to the conduction of the council when he was an alderman. cil when he was an alderman The ladies of Toronto who refuse love for themselves unless it be accompanied by love for their pets have arisen in arms, alarmed at the daring and audacity of the man Thompson, and down to the City Hall went a body of them yesterday to try and impress upon the members of the Property Committee the awful consequences that will follow if they attempt to pass the bylaw which has been introduced. They took a law yer and a parson along with them to assist in casioling the civic autocrats, but better had they left the man of parchment at home, for he only hurt their cause.

This is the offending clause in the proposed bylaw: "No person shall allow his dog to run at large in any of the public parks, squares, drives, streets, lanes, alleys or other public places in the city, unless such dog is accompanied by and is under the immediate charge and control of some competent person, and any dog found running at large contrary to this provision shall be liable to be captured and disposed of as hereinafter provided."

Mrs. S. G. Wood made a pathetic appeal for dogdom, but the merciless exald. Thompson answered her in harsh words. He did not see why the public streets should be made "a playground for vicious dogs," or vicious dogs,"

Ald. Sheppard: One of my children was bitten by a dog. I would rather all the dogs in Toronto were destroyed than have my child mutilated. The dogs have a right to live, certainly, but not have a right to live, certainly, but not in preference to our children.

J. G. Ridout: I would rather see some men shot than a dog.

Then uprose Ald. Frankland. He considered the last remark an insult; and in the face off it he would move that the time for dogs to remain in the pound before being killed he made 48 hours, as in the new bylaw. He had up to then been willing to grant the request of the deputation to extend the time to 72 hours.

Chorus of ladies (appealingly): Oh, he On the mean it:

On the mean of Ald. Sheppard, the words "unless such dogs be muzzled"

Were inserted in the clause printed above. The time limit for redemption in the pound was left at 48 hours.

The bylaw was also changed to provide that the license fee be $1 for dogs and $5 for bitches, whether registered before or after July 1.

To Remove the Technical School. Ald Davies, Dunn and Saunders were, on the motion first mentioned, appointed a sub-committee to confer with the Technical School Board with a view of altering and improving the St. Lawrence Hall building, in order to make it avail able for the purposes of the Technical

The expenditure last year amounted to $47,301. A statement showing the receipts and A statement showing the receipts and expenditures in connection with the different public halls was also submitted. The total expenses amounted to $2976, and the receipts to $283.25, of which St. Andrew's Hall provided $163.25. This does not include the Pavilion.

The use of the Council Chamber has been granted to General Booth for a conference with a deputation of merebeats this efferment.

Assessment Appeal Dismissed. Judge McDougall yesterday dismissed the appeal of the Confederation Life Association against an assessment of $168,000, made by the city last year, on interest arising from investments of its reserve fund. Since the assessment for 1894 was made, and which is now under review by the Court of Appeal, an amendment was passed by the Do-minion Government to the Insurance Act, which the company considered released it entirely from taxation for income on its reserve. A. J. Russell Snow argued the appeal for the company, and the city was represented by H. L.
