

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

A bill pending for the franchise for women, is now before the Nova Scotia Legislature.

The third quarterly meeting of the Western Nova Scotia Board of Trade will be held in Wolfville, Monday evening, April 23rd.

The annual Bridgetown District Sunday School Association convenes in the Baptist Church on Friday morning and afternoon of this week.

An invitation has been extended to Rev. A. T. Dykeman to become pastor of Zion Baptist church, Yarmouth, and he will begin his duties on May 1.

The regular monthly intercession service on behalf of the war will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at the close of the regular church services.

Don't forget Easter Tuesday evening is the fixture for the postponed Red Cross entertainment. A male quartette will be one of the strong features of the programme.

Lost—Between Maxwell's Restaurant and the tennis court, a brown purse containing a sum of money. Finder will please return to the Monitor Office and receive reward.

A delegation from the Western Nova Scotia Board of Trade will wait on the local government on March 22, in reference to employment for returned soldiers and immigrants.

The great war film, "The Battle of the Somme," will be given in Phinney's Hall, Lawrenceton, on Friday evening, March 23rd. One show only, starting at 8.30. Admission 25c.

The engagement of Miss Florence Beatrice Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Morse of Middleton, to Harold Tremaine Jost, M. D. of Guysboro, is announced. Marriage to take place in Cambridge.

Spring is here according to the calendar but the low temperatures the past few days does not by any means suggest it. The thermometer dropped to thirty-four points below the zero mark on Monday evening.

A bill was introduced in the Local House last Friday to change the name of Wittenburg, Colchester County, to Wittenburg, in honor of the Wittenburg disliking the Teutonic sound of the present name.

Mr. F. R. Elliott, M. P. P., introduced a bill in the Legislature last week to enable the inhabitants of Margarettville to provide themselves with water for domestic, fire, and other purposes, and with electric light.

A paragraph in the Middleton items which appears on page four of this issue, reporting the death of a Mrs. Johnson, is incorrect. Our correspondent notified us of the error in the report, but not until that section of the Monitor had been printed.

A London despatch announces the death of the Duchess of Connaught, which occurred on Wednesday, March 14th, from pneumonia. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, with their family, left Ottawa, after five years' residence in Canada, on October 11th of last year.

Mr. Frank Marshall, son of Mr. Newcomb Marshall, formerly of Clarence, was a guest at the Grand Hotel Central in Truro, at the time it was burned early last Wednesday morning and had a narrow escape. He dropped from his room window to an extension roof below and rolled there to the ground. He sustained severe injuries to his head.

The war pictures, "The Battle of the Somme," presented in two shows at the Primrose Theatre last evening, brought out large audiences that packed the hall to the brim. These splendid pictures, which have the endorsement of His Majesty, King George, are pronounced to be the best war pictures yet produced, and our townspeople who were present last evening were well pleased with them.

Edward J. McNutt, for many years parlor car conductor on the D. A. R., and well known by the travelling public, was instantly killed last Wednesday night in Yarmouth while in the act of replacing a rivet in a pulley in the works of the New Johnson-Burrill Iron Co. His clothing caught in the belt and he was carried around the fast revolving shaft several times, his head striking the concrete floor above.

Hants Journal, Windsor—Mr. W. S. Prince of Lawrenceton, N. S., and a member of the Royal Bank staff here for some time, has severed his connection with the bank and enlisted. While here he had made many friends, all of whom wish him a safe return. Mr. Prince is connecting himself with the Div. Signalling Section and left on Monday morning for his home in Lawrenceton, from whence he will proceed to training quarters.

The Women's Institute of Lawrenceton are asking for all who have any old rags, magazines, old account books, or newspapers printed on a good quality of paper, to kindly bring them to J. E. Shaffner's warehouse, Lawrenceton, at any time during the last three days in March. They are endeavoring to fill a car, which will be sent to Halifax and disposed of for the proceeds to be used for purchasing medical supplies for the Red Cross Society.

In glancing over the pages of the March number of the Monthly Bulletin published by the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Co., we note that from January 21st to February 29th the Bridgetown Exchange handled 1569 long distance calls, Annapolis 657, Middleton 920, Digby 729. The percentage of "lost calls" for the Bridgetown Exchange was 5.1, which testifies to the splendid service rendered by the efficient staff of operators in our local Exchange. We also note that from month to month the Bridgetown Exchange handles by far the largest volume of business of any exchange between Yarmouth and Kentville.

Among the Maritime casualties published last week appears the name of Major Cecil V. Strong, who is reported killed in action. Major Strong is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy T. Strong of Halifax, and nephew of Mr. Charles H. Strong and Mr. Harry Strong of this town. He graduated from the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., in 1914, and shortly afterwards proceeded overseas and was given an Imperial commission as lieutenant in the Royal Engineers. He had been twice wounded, and had been awarded the Military Cross for bravery in action. He was only 23 years of age and was one of the youngest majors in the British army. His brother is Captain Gerald Strong, serving with the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Mrs. Harry Hayward has returned from Boston last Wednesday, and is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oliver F. Ruffee.

Sgt. A. Purdy of Wellington Barracks, Halifax, is spending a six days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Purdy.

Mrs. Harry Hayward has returned from a visit with relatives in St. John. She also attended the millinery openings while in the city.

Halifax Chronicle—J. D. MacNutt, chief train dispatcher at Truro, has been appointed inspector of trains and train dispatcher at Moncton.

Miss May Phelan returned on Friday last from a pleasant visit of several weeks in Boston. She attended the millinery openings in St. John en route.

Mr. R. J. Messenger of Lawrenceton was in Halifax last week, and very warmly welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayward.

Gunner George Gill, who has been at home for the last three weeks, suffering from an attack of quinsy, was able to return to his duties at the Citadel, Halifax, on Saturday.

Miss Annie Ring, who has been living in Bridgetown for over four years, left last week for her home in "Clearbrook" in view of her marriage, which will take place in Boston next month. A few of her friends gave her a shower and presented her with a case of silver knives and forks and other gifts. Miss Ring will be followed to her new home by the best wishes of the many friends she has made during her residence in Bridgetown.

The News, Anderson, Alberta—W. A. Irvine and his bride, who were formerly Miss J. L. Figgott of Granville Ferry, N. S., arrived in Anderson Sunday evening and were given a very hearty welcome by Mr. and Mrs. Irvine. The marriage was performed at Montreal. While in Granville Ferry, Mr. Irvine was the recipient of a purse of gold at the hands of old friends and admirers. The News joins a host of local friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Irvine many years of wedded bliss.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21 Universal—Animated Weekly No. 55. Full of entertaining features. Victor—"His Little Room-mate." Two parts. A Carol De Haven Comedy. Special—"Liberty No. 4." "Troped." Two parts. Contains much realistic warfare.

Thursday, March 22 Daniel Frohman presents Hazel Dawn and Owen Moore in "Under Cover." An extraordinary picture-ization of Roi Cooper Megrue's melodrama which ran two years in New York. A famous player's production in five parts.

Saturday, March 24 Biograph—"His Fatal Show." An ingenious drama. Lubin—"The Gulf Between." An excellent three-act drama. Essanay—"The Night that Sophie Graduated." Snakebite laugh provoke.

Monday, March 26 The Vitaphone Co. presents "The Goddesses." With Anita Stewart and Earl Williams. It is certainly the most recognized in an appeal to intelligence. "The Goddesses" is quite in a class with "The Night that Sophie Graduated." Snakebite laugh provoke.

FLASHLIGHT DIVISION ENTERTAINMENT RETURNED SOLDIERS Flashlight Division recently gave a reception to the soldier boys returned wounded from the trenches in France. Pte. Ira Brinton and Pte. John Hamilton, the parents and immediate friends were invited. An address of welcome was given by the Deputy of the Division to the boys, after which a literary entertainment was rendered, followed by refreshments, games, speeches and music. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all. The program closed by singing "God Save Our King."

Flashlight Division has eight boys in the King's uniform—Sergeant Prescott Whitfield, Ptes. Chester Messenger and Maurice Chute at the front, Pte. Sherman Marshall of the 246th Batt., Halifax, Ptes. Charles Foster and Guy Marshall, Home Guard, Halifax, and the two above mentioned.
