

SCHR. BLUENOSE AT PONCE, P. R.

The Vessel Made the Run From Halifax in 9 1-2 Days

The schooner Bluenose, Captain Angus Walters, arrived at Ponce, Porto Rico, early on Monday morning after a passage of nine and a half days from Halifax, according to a cable received Tuesday by Zwicker and Company, of Lunenburg, her managing owners, from their agent at Ponce. The vessel will discharge her cargo of 600 casks of dried fish and proceed to Turk's Island to load salt for Lunenburg and it is expected that she will be back to her home port in about fifteen days.

LAWRENCETOWN

Little Ardisie Hanley is ill with pneumonia. Miss Elizabeth Feltus has gone to Boston to spend the winter. Mrs. Mary Durling spent Monday, the guest of Miss Clara Lonsley. Dr. L. R. Morse is very busy these days, as there is so much sickness. Mr. H. H. Whitman went to St. John on Monday to purchase Christmas goods. Mrs. (Dr.) S. Primrose has returned from a visit to Kenville, where she was the guest of her sister. Rev. Robie Longley, returned Missionary from China, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Miss Elsie Kinney and hope to hear the good tidings of her recovery since going to the hospital. On Monday, 14th, the various Aid Societies, Lawrencetown, Williams- ton, and Inglisville, met in the Baptist Church at Lawrencetown to observe "Cruisade Day." The Misses Martha and Dr. Zella Clark, returned Missionaries from India, were present and charmed the audience with their addresses. At four o'clock the members of the Mission Band arrived and Mrs. Martha Clark told them in her pleasing manner of her work among the children of India, also a certificate of Life Membership was presented by Miss Clark to Billy Laundry of the Mission Band, after which they sang several songs, and were treated with candy, and dismissed. Then Dr. Zella Clark, dressed in native Indian costume, gave a very interesting talk on her work. At the close of the program supper was served and a social hour spent. At 7:30 a platform meeting was held in the Auditorium. Mrs. E. H. Freeman presided. Mrs. (Rev.) A. H. Whitman read the scripture, and the Lord's prayer was repeated in Unison. The choir rendered appropriate music. The Missionaries addressed the meeting regarding their various work which was listened to with interest. The collection was taken up by four young ladies, namely: The Misses Mary Bacon, Jean Palfrey, Frances Whitman and Miss Louise Sprowl. The meeting closed with prayer by the pastor.

JOKER'S CORNER

Habits Change

A man employed at a cinematograph studio was directed by the manager to act in a comedy scene with a lion. "You get into this bed," ordered the manager, "and we'll bring the lion and put him in bed with you. It will make a very comic scene." "Put a lion in bed with me?" yelled the actor. "No, sir, I'll not allow it, I'll hand in my resignation right away."

The Height Of Hospitality

When Savannah was making a bid for the Shriners' convention, she had no more enthusiastic supporter than Judge Peter W. Meldrin, Chief Justice Taft's successor as president of the American Bar Association. An Atlanta supporter protested. "Why, you know, Judge," said he, "Savannah couldn't take care of the crowds. Even by putting cots in the halls, parlors and dining rooms of the hotels there wouldn't be beds enough."

Why He Was Interested

They met at a dance. He was tall and stalwart, she—oh, so sweet! They jizzed, they whirled, they—well, they did just what everybody could do. After the seventh dance with his charmer, the young man stopped suddenly and glanced suspiciously round. "It's funny, Mabel," he said, "See that glum-looking chap over there. He's been following us about all the time. Who is he and what's he after?" "Who—that miserable, half-starved fellow with the spotted tie?" remarked Mabel, casually. "Don't worry about him; he's only the fellow who paid for me to come in."

Why He Wanted The Same Butter

"Ma wants two pounds of butter exactly like what you sent us last week. If it ain't exactly like that she won't take it." The grocer turned to his customer and remarked blandly: "Some people don't like particular customers, but I do. It's my delight to get them just what they want. I will attend to you in a moment, my boy." "All right," said the boy, "but be sure and get the same kind. A lot of dad's relations are visiting our house and ma doesn't want 'em to come again."

Easy To Get On With

"First Her—You have a new house maid, I see, Mrs. Youngwife." "Second Her—Yes, I got her about a week ago." "First Her—How do you like her?" "Second Her—Very much, indeed. She lets me do as I like about the house."

Cruel Treatment

In a London play U. S. supposed sufferings under prohibition are thus satirized: "Heroin—What are those shrieks. Villian (relentlessly)—They have tied an American to a chair and are showing him a bottle of Scotch."

How It Should Have Been Ordered

Walter—How did you order your steak, sir? Impatient diner—Orally, I'm sorry to say. I see now that I should have ordered it by mail two weeks in advance.

The Great Gap

"I didn't know that Reggie stuttered so badly." "He doesn't stutter at all, but he promised his wife he would cut out swearing, and it leaves his conversation full of holes."

Very Considerate

Papa—Why did you permit young Gaybird to kiss you in the parlor last night? Daughter—Because I was afraid he'd catch cold in the hall.

How He Wanted It

Walter—By the way, sir, that steak you ordered—how would you like to have it? Patient customer—Very much indeed.

He Must Be A Baby

"I love to hear a woman talking baby talk." "Me, too, but not to a dog."

COP RESPONDENCE

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION

To the Editor of The MONITOR: My Dear Mr. Dunham: If The MONITOR is consistently uniform in excellence with the standard set by this week's issue, which I have just read, then, I must tell you I think you are getting out one of the best weekly newspapers in the Dominion. And while your readers in these Western Counties are to be congratulated on such service, I feel that it would be to those in far fields and strange lands that The MONITOR would peculiarly and strongly appeal. The issue I have seen is a positive treasure house of home news, enticingly written and clearly edited and displayed. To a native of these counties living in other parts of the world, the arrival of such a newspaper each week would speedily become an institution, a portion of his life.

I know what it is to be away from home haunts and surroundings—and how eagerly one devours every word that is printed in a home paper, that by some stroke of chance, happens along. It is the next thing to getting back to the old familiar atmosphere, seeing hundreds of old friends and swapping reminiscences. "One touch of Nature," they tell us, "makes the whole world kin." The aphorism may be something of a "bride" but I do know that nothing is quite so satisfying to the crave for kinship as, half across the world, being brought into intimate touch with what is happening "back home."

I have often thought I should like to some day edit a little weekly newspaper. If I ever attain to that desire, I shall have it modelled "over the lines" of The MONITOR.

Fraternally yours, EDGAR E. KELLEY, Bridgetown, Nov. 24th, 1921.

A WEDDING RECEPTION

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitman, Albany, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd, in honor of their son Fred and bride (Mrs. Whitman was formerly a very popular teacher in Albany). About seventy-five guests were present, among them being several of the bride's former pupils. Many gifts were received, including linen, silver, china and money, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Games were indulged in, and after a dainty lunch of ice cream and cake, etc., the guests departed, wishing the young couple many years of happiness.

Relaxation Demanded

"So you prefer the films to the stage?" "But don't you miss the charm of the speaking voice?" "I do not. The human voice is what makes me feel like a tired business person. I work at a telephone switch-board."
