

900 DROPS
CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
Mothers Know That
Genuine Castoria
Always Bears the Signature of
J. H. Charlton
In Use
For Over
Thirty Years
CASTORIA

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

A Hard Nut to Crack
There has been a determined effort made for the past few years to produce something "Just as Good" as
GOLDEN SWEET MOLASSES
But all efforts have failed
GOLDEN SWEET is in a class by itself, and its quality is beyond competition. It is beautifully clear, free from sediment, and the Golden Sweet flavor, like Lea & Perrins' sauce, cannot be excelled.
GOLDEN SWEET is making new friends every day,
Price 45 cents per gallon
Extra Fancy Barbados 35 cents per gallon
J. H. CHARLTON & CO.
MIDDLETON, N. S.
Get our prices on Double Re-cleaned Seed Oats, Timothy and Clover Seeds.

A. W. ALLEN & SON
Manufacturers of Doors, Sashes, Mouldings
and Building Material
FINISH OF ALL KINDS
Lumber Clapboards, Shingles, Lathes Staves, Heading, Etc.
MIDDLETON, Annapolis Co., N. S.

Here's a New Book
on Scientific Management

OR, to be more specific,
a book dealing with that important phase of Scientific Management which has to do with the economy of floor space in the factory, store, warehouse, garage, hotel or printing plant.

This Book tells a story of vital interest to every progressive business man. It points the way to increased profits through greater efficiency. It lays bare the causes of many business failures and shows how these failures might have been turned into successes. If it is the means of helping you solve some knotty problem in your own business, we will feel that it has accomplished its object.

OTIS-FENSOM ELEVATOR COMPANY LIMITED
50 BAY ST., TORONTO

Fill in and mail this coupon TO-DAY. Do not put it off until another time. Better tear it off and mail NOW, while the thought is fresh in your mind.

COUPON "N. S." 55
Please send me your Book.
Name.....
Address.....

Advertise in the MONITOR. It has a large and increasing circulation

MIDDLETON
Aug. 17.
Miss Julia Spurr, of Round Hill, is a guest at J. A. Gates.
Miss Gertrude Roop spent the week-end at her home in Springfield. Mr. D. Muir spent a few days last week visiting in Annapolis Royal and Kentville.
Mrs. E. L. Roop, of Springfield, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Charlton.
Miss Freda Miller is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. L. T. Richmond Smith.
Rev. J. L. Batty left on Wednesday last to return to Winnipeg via Halifax.
Mrs. Storey is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McGill.
Miss Daisie Corkum, of Chester, spent the past week the guest of Miss M. E. Young.
T. M. Hibbert, B. A., is spending a few days in town, the guests of his sister, Mrs. F. A. Brown.
Miss Madeleine Fisher returned last Wednesday from a visit to her friend, Miss Mary Read, of Digby.
Miss Alma Long, of Dalhousie, while in town last week, en route to Manitoba, was the guest of Mrs. C. A. Young.
Mr. Wright, wife and child, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, have returned to their home in Springfield.
Mrs. T. A. Croaker and Mrs. O. P. Goucher left the first of last week for Woodstock, N. B., where they attended the Rebecca Assembly.
W. G. Parsons, K. C., returned last week from Mahone Bay, where he has been spending his vacation. His family will return this week.
A. B. Gates, S. H. Morrison, and C. M. Hoyt went to Woodstock last week as delegates to the Oddfellows' Grand Lodge, returning on Friday.
Mrs. J. S. Baile, of New Windsor, Maryland, her two children and her aunt, Mrs. Williams, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gates.
Miss Gertrude Burditt arrived home recently from Truro, where she was taking a short course of study. She is now spending a few weeks in St. John.
Stanley Shaffner is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Shaffner. Mr. Shaffner, who has been visiting in Middleton for several weeks, returns to Maine with him.
Mrs. C. O. MacDonald left on Saturday for New York, where she will spend a few weeks. She will be joined by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Handel, of Havana, Cuba.
Mrs. F. R. Butcher left on Saturday for Bridgetown, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Warren, a few days. From there she goes to St. John, leaving for the West about the middle of September. We extend our best wishes to Mrs. Butcher and hope it will not be very long before we shall see her in Middleton again.

NICTAUX FALLS
Aug. 17.
Miss Mabel Charlton has been the guest of Mrs. H. H. Forster for a week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gould, of Roslindale, Mass., are visitors at Mrs. Gould's cousin, Mrs. James Vanner's.
Mrs. Bessie Whitman, who has been in Providence and Lynn for the past five months, returned to her home, Aug. 3rd.
Eighteen dollars was the result of an ice cream sale in the hall on Saturday night to be given to the Hospital ship, for the war.
Mrs. Wm. Moody and two children, of Margaretsville, have been visiting at Mrs. Moody's home, Mrs. J. Vanner's, for the past week.
Major Hoffman and family, of Middleton, are moving on the property of C. W. Hoffman formerly known as the "Drew Home".
Mrs. A. A. Forster, of Natick, Mass., Miss Grace Woodward, of Granville, and Mrs. W. V. Spurr were recent guests of their aunt, Mrs. Colin Smith.
Quite a number of the older men of this vicinity, enjoyed a trip to Middleton last Friday, returning with a broad smile and one hundred dollars Fenian Raid bounties. Perhaps this will be an incentive for our young soldiers to enlist in the present campaign.

TORBROOK
Aug. 17.
S. W. Barteaux, Jr., has volunteered for active service in the first contingent.
The ladies of this place, are collecting a contribution to Canada's hospital ship.
The Sunday Schools of this district unite for their annual picnic at Margaretsville on Wednesday next.
A large number from here have been at Camp Meeting and the Sunday School Workers' Meeting at Berwick.
The army worm has made its appearance in some fields here but not so much damage will result to this year's crops.
A number of men employed at the Cohalt Mines are coming home as some of the pits are being closed and at others single men are being laid off.
Crops of all kinds in this district are looking first-class. Providential, for it looks as if the farmer will have to get his food out of his own bin this winter.

MELVERN SQUARE
Aug. 17.
Miss Ryan, of Truro, was a recent guest of her friend, Miss Myrtle Morse.
Miss Georgie Brown was successful in obtaining an M. P. Q. this year—Congratulations!
Master Raymond Gould, is spending a few weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Burgess Wheaton.
Miss Chipman, of Tupperville, was the guest of Lt.-Col., and Mrs. McNeil during this week.
Mr. Robert Feltus, of Lawrence town, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phinney, recently.
Mr. Oscar Neiley, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Isaiiah Palmer, of this place.
Mr. Mace Masters, of Roxbury, Mass., is visiting his brother, Mr. John Masters, of Melvern West.
Miss Lillah Gates has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Andrew Clark and Mrs. Wheelock Marshall, of Bridgetown.
The Misses Hattie and Mildred Wheelock, of Clarence, were the guests of Mrs. Miner Sproul for a few days last week.
We are glad to see Miss Hortense Spurr out again, after being confined to the house for some weeks from an injury to her knee.
Miss Mary Phinney, of Bridgetown, spent a few days of the first of this week with her cousins, the Misses Sadie and May Phinney.
The Misses Feltus, of Lawrence town, and Miss Lillian Smith, were recent visitors at the home of their aunt Mrs. Duncan Smith.
The Misses Almada and Ruth Jackson, spent Monday, the 16th, very pleasantly on the Berwick camp grounds, returning by the "Owl" train.
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tilley, who have been spending the last two months in Boston, arrived home on Wednesday last, very much invigorated by the rest and change.
Mr. and Mrs. Candy, of New York, have been the guests of the former's sisters, Mrs. A. E. Wheeler, of Melvern, and Mrs. Gage, of Margaretsville, during the past two weeks.
"War and rumors of war" is the all absorbing topic of conversation just at present, and the daily papers are eagerly pursued in search of still later news of the great broil across the seas.
Mrs. Hugh Kerr and little son, Ralph, of Montreal, arrived on Saturday last, and will spend several weeks with Mrs. Kerr's father, Mr. Thomas Outhit, who has been confined to his bed for some time past. Mrs. Kerr's many friends welcome her back to her old home in Melvern.

OBITUARY
MRS. MARY ANN BANKS.
At West Ingleville, at the home of her son, Mr. Leonard Banks, on Aug. 10, Mrs. Sarah Ann Banks, after a protracted illness of paralysis, fell asleep in Jesus.
For seven years, Mrs. Banks, who was in her 82nd year, had suffered much and her death was not unexpected. Calmly and with the most implicit confidence in the wisdom of God and the sacrificial work of her Redeemer, Mrs. Banks had made all necessary preparations for the inevitable, with sanctified good sense regarding death merely as a part of God's great plan for His saints and so passed into the great beyond in perfect peace.
In her early girlhood days our sister gave her heart to the Saviour and was baptized and welcomed into the Methodist Church.
Her maiden name was Sarah Ann Durling. In the year 1847, she became the wife of George C. Banks, who preceded her five years ago.
She was an active and exemplary Christian. There was always a warm welcome at her fireside for ministers of the Gospel.
She was highly esteemed for her cheery sympathetic spirit and her interest in the welfare of all. She was a most faithful mother and a kind and helpful neighbor. For the comfort and welfare of others she thought more than for herself. Now that she is gone her ministrations will be missed, but we believe she will be remembered by all to whom she had her impress on others who will perpetuate her influence. Thus did she prove during the active part of her life a tower of strength to those around her; and all was done in her quiet unobtrusive way.
But the evil days drew nigh when she was laid aside from all outward activity; and although to one of her practical disposition the trial must have been a sore one, not a murmur was ever heard to escape from her loyal lips. Through these weary years of helplessness she was tenderly and lovingly cared for by her son and his estimable wife, until the call came to higher service in our Father's house of many mansions.
The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Armitage, who spoke very touchingly on the words, "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like His."
After which the remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband, in Fairview Cemetery.
The deceased leaves to mourn their loss three daughters and five sons: Mrs. Benjamin Leonard, of Kingston; Mrs. Annie Cobb, of Alliston; Mrs. Roy Hamilton, of Truro; Edwin, Leonard and John, of West Ingleville; Charles, of Wilmot and Avarid, of Kingston.
Much sympathy has gone out most especially to Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Cobb, whose health would not permit them to join the others in their loving ministrations during the last hours.
But while in the lonely hearts that are left there is great longing for the mother who is gone none could wish her back for to her there is only rest and "fulness of joy."

LAWRENCETOWN
Aug. 17.
School Opens August 31st, 1914.
Miss Hazel Balcom is visiting friends at Torbrook.
A little daughter is in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Banks.
Dr. Frank Wheelock, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Wheelock.
Miss Hattie Fair spent the week-end with Mrs. J. E. Shaffner.
Miss Mamie Gerner has returned from a fortnight's visit at Belleisle.
Rev. Mr. England will preach in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening next.
A number of the towns-folk are enjoying the Bay breeze at Port Lorna and Port George.
Miss Annie M. Stronach, of Margaretsville, is spending a week with Mrs. C. S. Balcom.
Services for Sunday, August 23—Baptist, 11 a. m.; Episcopal, 3 p. m.; Methodist, 7.30.
Mrs. Lovd Chesley, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Chesley and other relatives and friends.
Carl A. Balcom, of Toronto, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Balcom.
Miss Etta Doane, of Massachusetts, is spending the Summer with her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Prince.
Judge Longley and family having spent two weeks at D. M. Balcom's, returned to Halifax on Saturday last.
Mrs. E. A. Phinney and daughter, Marjorie, spent a week with relatives at Berwick and took in the Camp Meeting.
Miss Vivian Phinney has accepted the school at South Williamston and Miss Hazel Balcom at North Williamston.
Mr. T. H. Collier, Professor of European History of Brown University is visiting at W. C. MacPherson's.
Miss Pearl Balcom leaves for Boston, on the 29th to train for nurse at the Leopold Morse Hospital, Natick, Mass.
Rev. H. G. and Mrs. Mellick and son, Leonard, returned from P. E. I., on Friday where they have been spending their vacation.
Miss Leah Leck, of Truro, is engaged to take charge of the Intermediate Department of the High School for the ensuing year.
Messrs. Adna Long and Carl Patricquin, of Waverly, Mass., were guests of Mrs. E. A. Phinney and other relatives for two weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Leverett Durling and son, Victor, spent Sunday at Dalhousie, the guests of Mrs. Durling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson.
The Misses Kate and Margaret Todd, of Bridgetown, on their return from Camp Meeting were guests of Mrs. Arthur Duncan and her mother, Mrs. Buckler.
The demonstration in cooking at the regular meeting of the Women's Institute was a decided success. Miss Cox was much appreciated by a good audience of representative women.
The following young ladies namely: Misses Myrna Stoddart, Bessie Miller, Martha Beals, Hattie Foster, of United States are spending their vacation with their parents. Also Miss Bancroft, Miss Marguerite West, Miss Panny Balcom, and Miss Edith Whitman are enjoying a rest at home. We are glad to see the young people in our midst again.

Over Six Millions Ready to Fight For Russia
(Special Cable Despatch to The Globe)
LONDON, Aug. 7.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Times says that ukases published today show that Russia is determined to fight to the bitter end. Practically the whole of her population capable of bearing arms has now been called to the colors. When the present mobilization is completed Russia will have considerably more than 6,000,000 men under arms.
Deputies arriving from all points to attend the opening of the Duma tell me the mobilization is proceeding everywhere with remarkable rapidity. The first batch of ploughmen reservists was seen in St. Petersburg yesterday evening, marching gaily, some of them wearing the birchbark shoes and rough attire characteristic of the remote provinces.
The wave of patriotic enthusiasm has brought in so many volunteers that the General Staff has been compelled to issue special rules restricting the admittance of many school-boys who are eager to enter the service.

KEEP THEM WORKING
A horse in the field is worth two in the barn. You can't prevent Spavin, Ringbone, Splint, or Curb from putting your horse in the barn but you can prevent these troubles from keeping horses in the barn very long. You can get at any drug store at $1 a bottle, 50c for 25, and Kendall's will cure. Thousands of farmers and horsemen will say so. Our book "Treatise on the horse" free.
KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE
Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., Essexburg, Va., Va.

The Interesting Snail
If you wish to examine a snail, place him on a piece of glass. He is a cold-blooded creature, and contact with a warm hand probably induces him somewhat the same sensation that we should experience if we were placed on top of the kitchen range. The corners of the glass will be agreeable to the snail, and he will travel along peacefully by expanding and contracting his broad, sucker-like feet.
His horns, or feelers, are protruded in an inquiring manner; and if a finger be placed in front of him, he will probably walk on until the feelers come in contact with it. Then the feelers are withdrawn and waved about in an effort to see the obstruction more clearly; for each feeler has at its end a small, imperfect, but still discernible eye, that is capable, at least of distinguishing between light and darkness.
A snail's manner of withdrawing his horns is very interesting. He does not pull them back, bodily, into their receptacles, but turns them inside out, just as one sometimes turns the fingers of a tight glove.
The little creature has a sense of smell, and also a fairly well developed ear, which lies close to the roots of his horns.
His breathing apparatus is of the simplest description. On looking carefully at his right side, anyone may see that a distinct hole occasionally appears there, remains open a few moments, and then closes again. This is simply a cavity in a creature's body, into which, at suitable intervals, he allows a certain quantity of air to enter.
When air has thus found its way into his interior, he keeps it there until the oxygen is exhausted by his vital processes. What remains, laden with carbonic acid, is allowed to escape by re-opening the little trap-door, and the receptacle is again filled with pure air.
The snail's mouth is armed with a saw-like tongue, like a long, narrow ribbon, coiled up so that only a part of it comes into use at any one time. Distributed over the surface of this ribbon are tiny teeth, sometimes as many as thirty thousand.
As one set of teeth becomes worn away by leaf-cutting, another portion of ribbon is uncoiled, and the teeth which were before wrapped up at the back of the mouth come forward to take their turn in pressing the food against the horny upper surface of the mouth, and thus cutting it.
The snail's shell is a horny covering that serves to protect its soft body against numerous foes. Slugs are simply snails that live a retired life, and consequently need no covering at all.
The shell of the snail is built up from lime in the plants on which it feeds. The creatures are never found on soil which contains no lime—Youth's Companion.
Minard's Liniment cures Diphtheria.

Appreciation
The fact that we had two cars of flour on hand when the War was declared and that we sold and are selling same at the old price (only a few bbls left) is being appreciated by our customers.
Some tell us it is poor business, but that is just how you look at it. We have always tried to play the game on the square and you won't find us wanting at the critical time. All goods we have in stock will be sold at regular prices.
We are fairly well covered on
Molasses and Tea
so there will not be any advance on these two lines with us, whilst present stock holds out. Of course any lines we have to go into the market to buy we will have to add our legitimate profit to cost of goods.
This is our position. What do you think of it?
YOURS RESPECTFULLY
SHAFFNERS Limited
LAWRENCETOWN

We Make Your Piano Purchase a Complete Success
To attain that complete success that the purchase of a Piano Investment must give you must consider durability, richness in appearance, artisticness in construction, superiority in tone and reasonableness in price.
We will satisfy you in each and every one of these essentials if you will write us now and carefully investigate what we have to offer.
We will assist you in selecting just the proper instrument to fulfill your requirements in price and efficiency and in keeping with the entire furnishings of your music room.
N. H. PHINNEY & COMPANY, LIMITED
Head Office: Lawrence town, N. S. Branches throughout Nova Scotia

For Sale at Lawrence town
Houses Building Lots
Farms Orchards
Apply to the
LAWRENCETOWN REAL ESTATE COMPANY
LAWRENCETOWN

We are not waiting for your Business
We simply have not had time to call.
We are coming, however, in the near future, and in the meantime a line to us and we will send one of our representatives to you immediately with a business proposition.
Our Assets for Policy Holders' security is over THREE AND A HALF MILLIONS
Our Insurance Income over TWENTY MILLIONS
The Excelsior Life Insurance TORONTO
Capt. S. M. Beardsley, Wolfville, Provincial Manager

The Interesting Snail
If you wish to examine a snail, place him on a piece of glass. He is a cold-blooded creature, and contact with a warm hand probably induces him somewhat the same sensation that we should experience if we were placed on top of the kitchen range. The corners of the glass will be agreeable to the snail, and he will travel along peacefully by expanding and contracting his broad, sucker-like feet.
His horns, or feelers, are protruded in an inquiring manner; and if a finger be placed in front of him, he will probably walk on until the feelers come in contact with it. Then the feelers are withdrawn and waved about in an effort to see the obstruction more clearly; for each feeler has at its end a small, imperfect, but still discernible eye, that is capable, at least of distinguishing between light and darkness.
A snail's manner of withdrawing his horns is very interesting. He does not pull them back, bodily, into their receptacles, but turns them inside out, just as one sometimes turns the fingers of a tight glove.
The little creature has a sense of smell, and also a fairly well developed ear, which lies close to the roots of his horns.
His breathing apparatus is of the simplest description. On looking carefully at his right side, anyone may see that a distinct hole occasionally appears there, remains open a few moments, and then closes again. This is simply a cavity in a creature's body, into which, at suitable intervals, he allows a certain quantity of air to enter.
When air has thus found its way into his interior, he keeps it there until the oxygen is exhausted by his vital processes. What remains, laden with carbonic acid, is allowed to escape by re-opening the little trap-door, and the receptacle is again filled with pure air.
The snail's mouth is armed with a saw-like tongue, like a long, narrow ribbon, coiled up so that only a part of it comes into use at any one time. Distributed over the surface of this ribbon are tiny teeth, sometimes as many as thirty thousand.
As one set of teeth becomes worn away by leaf-cutting, another portion of ribbon is uncoiled, and the teeth which were before wrapped up at the back of the mouth come forward to take their turn in pressing the food against the horny upper surface of the mouth, and thus cutting it.
The snail's shell is a horny covering that serves to protect its soft body against numerous foes. Slugs are simply snails that live a retired life, and consequently need no covering at all.
The shell of the snail is built up from lime in the plants on which it feeds. The creatures are never found on soil which contains no lime—Youth's Companion.
Minard's Liniment cures Diphtheria.