

The Magazine of Christian Literature: The Christian Literature Co., New York. A useful periodical, especially for clergymen who, from its pages, may cull information upon the great questions of the day, both within and without the Church of England. In addition to many valuable articles each number contains a portion of the "Theological Propædeutic"—a general introduction to the study of Theology—by Dr Philip Schaff, Professor of Church History in the Union Theological Seminary, New York.

The Missionary Review of the World: We find this periodical always most useful in giving missionary information, and suggesting thought for missionary subjects. It is now favourably recognized everywhere, and has become an acknowledged authority on missionary subjects. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2.50 per year; 25 cents per single number.

New England Magazine, Boston, Mass. The stories in the January New England Magazine are of a quaint, unusual character, very refreshing in these days of sensationalism. Edith Mary Norris' "A Salem Witch," is a bright little story with a strain of pathos in it, and something of Hawthorne's power. "The Yellow Wall Paper," by Charlotte Perkins Stetson, is a wild and weird sketch.

The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass. This excellent weekly, well printed and beautifully illustrated, gives promise of keeping up to its usually high standard by a very brilliant announcement of articles and authors for 1892. It is always of a good moral tone and gives wholesome reading for young people of all sizes and capacity.

Germania: A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester, New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance for students of that tongue.

The Churchman: New York; M. M. Mallory & Co., 37 Lafayette Place, New York. A weekly church paper, well known as one of the best church periodicals published.

Newbery House Magazine: Griffiths, Farren, Okeden & Welsh, London, England. This magazine comes every month as a welcome visitor. Its articles are usually on themes of interest to churchmen, but frequently are of a general nature, instructive for all. Numerous illustrations from time to time are found in it.

The Scientific American: 361 Broadway, New York. The amount of information of a scientific and general nature that can be obtained from this excellent publication is surprising. Inventions and discoveries of all kinds, and in every department of life, are continually found in it, amply embellished with handsome illustrations.

Biblia: A monthly journal devoted to Biblical archaeology and oriental research. Meriden, Conn. Subscription, $1 a year.
