EASTERN TOWNSHIPS EXHIBITION.

The third annual exhibition took place September 13th to 16th and was a most successful show both in quality and quantity of exhibits. The building containing the fowls was well filled with visitors during the three days, in fact this department was the most attractive of any on the ground. Mr. THOS. HALL, of Montreal judged the poultry and pigeons and gave the utmost satisfaction. There were over 100 coops of fowls and 40 coops of pigeons.

LIGHT BRAHMAS took the lead in number. Mr. Rufus Pope, of Cookshire, Que. made a fine display winning most of the honors awarded to this variety.

Next came the PLYMOUTH ROCKS of which there were a fine lot, C. J. Odell, Sherbrooke, Que., coming first on old fowls, Mr. Geo. Dunton, of Richmond, Que., winning on breeding-pens and young fowls.

WYANDOTTES were a strong class. Mr. W. H. Edwards, of Coaticooke, Que., taking first both on old and young fowls the first prize hen being very finely marked with beautiful comb.

DORKINGS were a small class the principal exhibitor being Mr. Thos. Irving who carried off every red ticket in this variety.

BLACK SPANISH and Leghorns were not up to former years, although some very good birds were shewn by C. J. Odell and E. W. Davies, of Sherbrooke, Que.

MINORCAS were ahead of former years Mr. A. Pepler, of Melbourne, Que., made a fine display. His birds are finely bred, possessing the neat almond shaped ear lobe as white as snow. First and second prize on both old and young, were attached to his coops.

HAMBURGs were represented with birds from the yards of Mr. James Moy, and J. Rathbone, of Sherbrooke, Que. The silver-spangled especially were good.

LANGSHANS were a small class. Mr.

J. J. O'Neil, of Coaticooke, Que., carried the red tickets in this class.

GAMES, this class was equal to former years, Mr. U. Bonneville, of Danville, made a large display showing some fine Red Pyle, Duckwings, and Brown and Black Breasted Reds winning the red ticket on each variety, his Malays are grand birds. One very fine pair Black Breasted Red Game fowls was exhibited by Mr. C. J. Odell, of Sherbrooke, Que., they were justly awarded the red ticket. The cock bird was in beautiful feather and admired by everyone.

The aquatic class was well-filled. The principal exhibitors being Mr. J. A. Camirand, Sherbrooke, Que., and Thos. Irving, Montreal, Que.

One very attractive pen was a pair of BRONZE TURKEYS exhibited by Mr. Bonneville, of Danville. They were magnificent fine large birds the pair weighing not less than sixty pounds.

Mr. James Moy, of Sherbrooke, Que. as usual made a grand display of FANCY PIGEONS, winning first on all varieties, including Carriers, Fantails, Tumblers, Barbs, Trumpeters, Owls, Jacobines, Nuns, Helmets, and Antwerps.

(If our friends throughout the Dominion will send us short reports of township and agricultural fairs written after the style of the above, we will make an effort to find room for them in the REVIEW, and thus, perhaps, help to a better classification at the minor fairs. Above all be short and spicy.—Ed.)
