MILLER vs. CHUISTOL.

Willem liberana Vada Cansiel met on Monda, more than New York and the letter es to wrestle to Claim rile, at some plan which is to be hereafter named, that's to be re that ony, and within eighteen days of date. This match originate a from a ceft o Miller from Christol, to which the former promptly respected. By the articles or agreement the match is to be de-ended by the last two folls out of three, and in order to aroud the annoying all-malt bouts that have frequently ensued during these contests, they have agreed to wrestie from thirty tamutes past cight to half-past eleven p.m., and in case neither man should obtain a fall during that time, the contestants are to emissuo until one obtains a fall, which shall decide the match. In ease only one fall is obtained within the limited time, it shall be deemed sufficient to decide the match; but if they both should have secured a fall, the men will have to continue until the decilingfall is gamed. The money is all up, so the public can rely upon its being a genuine upand-up match, and as both men are noted athletes, there is do deatt that the contest will be a magniticent one. Christol is a much smaller man than his opponent, but he is conceded on all sides to be the most seen differ exponent of this species of westling that has ever visited these shores.

WOODPINE PARK BACES

TENZ TORONTO " MALL."

By the programme in tooky's paper it will be som that the now Woodbin Park Associa tion of ravery tempting hal of fore to horse-men and visitors. All class son horses have been provid I for, and the I were of either flat racing, steeplechasing hurdling, or trotting, will be here enabled to see the flectest repre-sentative of the several classes in their pleasing contests for supremsey. In addition to our present Canadian stables the managers have received intimation of several from across the hes, opecially in the specdier classes, who are likely to participate in the struggles. And it is not improbable that a stable that has not forgotten the saline preserve of the broad Atlan tio will grace the meeting with at least a couple of representatives. Competent gentlemen have expressed their surprise at the elegant condition of the track thus early, and compare it favorably with the finest on the continent. The stands and firtings have received a complete overhaulmg, and everything that can contribute to the comfort or pleasure of visitors has been duly considered. The personnel of the management is such as to ensure the greatest confidence in their efforts. Taking it altogether there is every possibility that the spring meeting of 1877 over the Woodbine track will be one of the heat at any time held in the country; and its result as the principal turf gathering in the Dominion will be anxiously watched by those who desire to see the institution occupy its proper position in this country, and no doubt black points, which promises to make a trotter. Brown mare, 6 years, 16 hands, of unknown pedigree, fine-gaised, with lots of kneed action, and one that will, no doubt, give a good account of herself during the summer.
