VITAL QUESTIONS '1

Ask the most eminent physician Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irrita-tion of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike retreshing alcop always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly
"Some form of Hops!"

CHAPIER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only emedy that can be relied on to cure all disclass of the kidneys and urinary organs, such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or isactifity to retain urine, and all the disease and ailments peculiar to Women".

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu."

Ask the same physicians, "What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, billousness, malarial fever, ague, &c.," and they wil tell you; "Mandrake! or Dandelion!"

Hence, when these remedies are combined

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable
And compounded into Hop Bitters such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weak-est invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

" Patients "Almost dead or nearly dying

For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption have been gived tion, have been cured.

ONE of the rarest pieces of luck is an 4 portunity for merited benefience. - Mari. Eschenback.

Those who would let anything take the place of Christianity must first abolish all sorrow from the earth.—Montalembers. NOTHING makes the world seem so spa cious as to have friends at a distance; they make the lattitudes and longitudes. — Thorons THE soul of a man is audible, not visible

A sound alone betrays the flowing of the eternal fountain invisible to man.—Lon,

THE greatest friend to truth is time; her greatest enemy, prejudice; and her constant companion, humility.

THE precept "Know yourself," was not solely intended to obviate the pride of man kind, but likewise that we might understand our own worth.— Chero.

The good-they drop around us, one by one Like stars, when morning breaks; though lost to sight,

Around us are they still in heaven's own light, Building their mansions in the purer zone Of the invisible. - Isaac Williams.

WE must choose between the rom man and the mysteries of God. God only reveals Himself through many a veil. but those veils are not falsehoods.- Guizot.

It is a solemn fact that, of every three persons walking on this vast globe, two have never heard of the Saviour, have never seen a Bible, know nothing of heaven or of hell

Who loves and lifts his fellow-man,

He is the saint; He walks with God who works for man; Who in restraint

Holds passion close, and folly scorns,
His nights are clean and sweet his mores.
God his pure brow with peace adorns,
And crown the saint!

How much trouble he avoids who doe not look to see what his neighbour says or does or thinks, but only to what he does himself, that it may be just and pure " Antoninus.

MULTITUDES within the Church dare no strike a hard blow at the liquor interest for fear of being hated by its advocates. This is weakness that is unpardonable in a courage

LET no one flatter himself that he is innocent, if he loves to meditate upon any thing which he would blush to avow before man, or fear to unveil before God.—France Wayland, D.D.

TIMES of general calamity and confusion have ever been productive of the greater minds. The purest ore is produced from he hottest furnace, and the brightest thunder bolt is elicited from the darkest storm—

As the tree is fertilized by its own broker branches and fallen leaves, and grows out of its own decay, so men and nations are bettered and improved by trial, and renned out of broken hopes and blighted expectate as F. W. Robertson.

LET not unworthiness scare the chi ten of God. Parents love their children and de them good, not because they see they are more worthy than others, for it may be far otherwise, but because they are their own - Archbishop Leighton.

A THOUGHT, A WORD.

Only a thought, but the work it wrough. Could never by tongue or per be taught. For it ran through life like a thread w gold.

And the life bore fruit—a hundredfold

Only a word, but 'twas spoken in love With a whispered prayer to the Lad

And the angels in heaven rejoiced once

For a new-born soul entered in the fit

WHEN Christians get in earnest, we may be sure they can surprise and amore the world now as well as in the days of Pentecost They only need to work together, and they can break down any giant evil, like intemper ance or bribery in politics.
