MUSIC DEPARTMENT.

A WORD OF ADVICE.

THE season when the music department becomes a very important branch of many book and stationery stores has arrived, and the retailer who fails to cultivate this department is doing an injustice to himself and is neglecting a splendid source of revenue. During the present and the coming months it will pay to give special attention to sheet music. Keep a stock of the latest and most seasonable pieces and stamp every copy you sell with your trade stamp. It will bring you more business, not only for music, but for music cases and general stationery.

REVIEWS OF RECENT MUSICAL PUBLICATIONS.

"The Last Farewell." Song. Written expressly for Madame Patti, by Chas. K. Harris, who was selected by her manager, Robt. Grau, to compose this ballad for her American tour. The fact that that song was selected from a large number submitted to the famous diva,
