NO. XVIII.

1. The name for bitter thus she called
 Herself when on returning home ;
 A faithful servant old and tried,
 Who for his master's sake did roam.
2. A dweller of that doomed plain,
 Who kept the faith when others fell
 A son of Adam, by whose hand
 His brother's fate refused to tell.
3. Where rose a standard of revolt,
 A city once the place of Kings ;
 A sin for which a house was doomed,
 The news of which a prophet brings.
4. The father of an apostle name,
 A fisherman he was by trade ;
 The wife of one restored from death,
 One of the last with whom Paul prayed.
5. A woman for whom others wept ;
 A prophet taken from the plough ;
 A man whose wife extolled in song ;—
 The riddle can you name it now.

The initials will form the name of a King of Jerusalem.
