From the Catholic Record. LONDON, Ont., March 20, 1897. London, Ont., March 20, 1897.

We can speak from personal knowledge of the good work done in this city by the Dyke Cure for intemperance, and the consulting physician, Dr. A. McTaggart, guarantees that the ran edy will do all that is claimed for it. In proof of this, he is willing that we become the custodians of each fee paid, until the end of the treatment, when, in the event of its failure to cure, we are authorized to return the same to the party who sent it.

Many cases in this city have been cured since August last, and only such families can truly appreciate the great happiness they now enjoy.
