Mercantile Summary.

MR. SAVANY, M. P., of New Brunswick, has introduced a bill into the House of Commons repealing the stamp act, so far as it relates to promissory notes and bills of exchange.

At a late meeting of the Halifax Chamber of Commerce the debateable question as to whether a No. 1 mackerel should be 14 or 13 inches in length was decided; 14 inches is to be the size of a well developed mackerel hereafter.

It is reported that the firm of Messrs. Boak & Woods, who have for many years conducted an extensive general store in Owen Sound, Ont., are in difficulties, and it is thought their failure is imminent. As their business is one of the largest in the County of Grey, the liabilities must be large, and are said to exceed $60,000, and that there is some deficiency.
