

Indigestion

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

Is the most effective and agreeable remedy in existence for preventing indigestion, and relieving those diseases arising from a disordered stomach.

Dr. W. W. Gardner, Springfield, Mass., says : " I value it as an excellent preventative of indigestion, and a pleasant acidulated drink when properly diluted with water, and sweetened."

Lieut.-Col. Andrew C. P. Haggard, brother of H. Rider Haggard, who was here in 1893, expects to return to Canada for a fishing and hunting tour in the Lake St. John country and elsewhere about next July.

Dr. Bourinot, C.M.G., has written for the May Forum a very striking comparison of the Canadian and American systems of Government, to show why the American system does not commend itself to Canadians.

Mr. S. J. McLean, who last year graduated in political science from the University of Toronto, taking high honours, has been offered a fellowship in political science in Columbia University, Washington, D.C., and will probably accept it.

Much interest will be felt by the public in the return of Rudyard Kipling to India. He has just agreed to furnish a regular contribution to The Cosmopolitan Magazine for the coming year, beginning his work upon his return to India. India has never been critically considered by such a pen as Kipling's, and what he will write will attract the widest attention both here and in England

Albert Lynch, whose work is becoming so much more generally known through his drawings in Scribner's Magazine and his cover designs for The Ladies' Home Journal, is a Peruvian by birth, but of English parentage. He is only thirty-three years of age, and of extremely retiring disposition. He is unmarried and lives in Paris. The young artist commands the highest prices for his work, his smallest water-colour paintings readily selling for $600 to $900 each. The next issue of the Journal will have a design by Lynch, portraying his conception of a woman's ideal costume. A succession of other cover designs by Lynch will follow.

Mr. John Mackie, the author of "The Devil's Playground," issued last month by Frederick A. Stokes Company, has had a large number of inquiries addressed to him lately by all sorts of people, desirous of knowing the primary reason that led to the adoption of such a strange title to his book. Mr. Mackie, who is a resident of Edinburgh, writes his publishers that the human heart when swayed by powerful and conflicting passions, akin to those that filled the hearts of the principal characters in his story, suggested the title. But as he wrote, anticipating much misinterpretation on this point, and not caring to be accused of clap-trap, he resolved to give the tale a double right to the title, and so introduced a valley in the Bad-lands that he himself had named when in charge of a North West Mounted Police detachment in that wild country. It was on one occasion when snowed up in this identical valley that the scene he afterwards put upon paper was suggested to him. It was S. R. Crockett, author of "The Raiders," who advised him to add the sub-title, viz.: "A Story of the Wild North West." Mr. Crockett thinks very highly indeed of "The Devil's Playground."

Between Life and Death.

HOW A GRENVILLE CO. LADY WAS RESTORED TO HEALTH.

A Severe Cold Brought on Illness Which Confined Her to Bed for Three Months and Brought Her Almost to the Verge of the Grave.

From Brockville (Ont.) Recorder.

In and around Merrickville there is no medicine so popular as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This condition of things is hardly to be wondered at when it is known that there are here scores of people who owe the excellent health they enjoy to this great life-saving medicine. Mrs. R. M. Eastman, a well-known and estimable resident of the village, is among those who speak in the highest terms of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Recently this lady related her experience to your correspondent as follows: "In the fall of 1893 I contracted a severe cold which resulted in congestion of the lungs. This threw me into bed, where I lay for over three months, all the while suffering a great deal, and apparently constantly growing weaker. I expectorated a great deal of blood, and at one time it was thought that nothing could save my life. But again I rallied and lay for a long time between life and death. I had suffered for some time before, being taken down with a severe pain in my head and left side, and sharp, twinging pains between my shoulders. The pain in my side and head continued to trouble me all through my illness. The doctor gave up all hopes and my friends made up their minds that I could not live. It was at this juncture that a friend strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I sent and procured a couple of boxes. I began their use and soon felt an improvement in my condition, and by the time the two boxes were gone I could sit up in bed and take considerable nourishment. I gladly continued the use of the Pink Pills and soon found the pain in my left side and head had gone and I began to feel like a new person. By the time I had taken six boxes I was able to be up and around the house and could do some light work. I still continued using Pink Pills and constantly gained in strength until I was soon as strong as ever I had been in my life. Last fall I caught cold and the pains to which I have referred returned in a light degree, but I had now found a cure for them and taking a couple more boxes of pills I was as well as ever. I never had better health than at present and feel such confidence in the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I always keep a box in the house, and I confidently believe that but for them I would have been in the grave to-day and my little ones motherless. I cannot say too much in their praise, and hope my experience may be the means of inducing some other sufferer to try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give new life and richness to the blood and re-build shattered nerves, thus driving out diseases due together of these two causes, and this means that they effect a cure in a large percentage of the troubles which afflict mankind. Some unscrupulous dealers impose on the public imitations of this great medicine. The genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk or by the hundred or ounce, or in any form except in the company's boxes, the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." No matter what the colour of any pill offered in any other shape, it is bogus. These pills cure when other medicines fail.
