

Canada from trying a member for any violation of rules of discipline arising from an act or omission which constituted an offence for which he was tried by the authorities of Ghana.

15. Whenever a member or a dependent is prosecuted under the jurisdiction of Ghana, he shall be entitled

- (a) to a prompt and speedy trial;
- (b) to be informed, in advance of trial, of the specific charge or charges made against him;
- (c) to be confronted with the witnesses against him;
- (d) to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favour, if they are within the jurisdiction of Ghana;
- (e) to have legal representation of his own choice for his defence or to have free or assisted legal representation under the conditions prevailing for the time being in Ghana;
- (f) if he considers it necessary, to have the services of a competent interpreter; and
- (g) to communicate with a representative of the Government of Canada and, when the rules of the court permit, to have such a representative present at his trial.

16. The military authorities of Canada may take all appropriate measures to ensure the maintenance of order of the Canadian Armed Forces Training Team.

Article VI (Security)

17. Ghana shall take the action necessary to ensure the security and protection within Ghana of equipment, property, records and official information of Canada and the persons and property of members and their dependents.

18. The military authorities of Canada shall take the measures necessary to ensure that a member shall not divulge or disclose to any foreign government or to any unauthorized person, any classified matter of which he may become cognizant in his capacity as a member. This obligation shall continue after the termination of the services of the member in Ghana and after the termination of this Agreement.

Article VII (Claims)

19. Ghana waives all claims against Canada for damage to any property owned by Ghana if such damage was caused by a member acting in the course of his official duties.

20. Canada and Ghana waive all claims against each other for injury or death suffered by a member or a member of the Armed Forces of Ghana while either member is engaged in the performance of his official duties.

21. A claim against Canada or a member arising out of an act done or an omission of anything by a member, done or omitted in the performance of official duty, shall be assimilated to, and be dealt with as if it were, a claim arising out of the activities of the Armed Forces of Ghana.

22. A member shall not be subject to any proceedings for the enforcement of any judgment given against him in Ghana in a matter arising from the performance of his official duties.

23. All costs incurred in satisfying a claim or judgment arising as aforesaid shall be borne by Ghana.
