

Forest Regions of Canada

- Boreal - Predominantly Forest
- Boreal - Forest and Grassland
- Boreal - Forest and Barren
- Great Lakes - St. Lawrence
- Montane
- Coast
- Columbia
- Deciduous
- Subalpine
- Acadian
- Grassland
- Tundra

Canadian Model Forest Network

- 1 Long Beach Model Forest
- 2 McGregor Model Forest
- 3 Foothills Model Forest
- 4 Prince Albert Model Forest
- 5 Manitoba Model Forest
- 6 Lake Abitibi Model Forest
- 7 Eastern Ontario Model Forest
- 8 Waswanipi Cree Model Forest
- 9 Bas-Saint-Laurent Model Forest
- 10 Fundy Model Forest
- 10a Nova Forest Alliance
- 11 Western Newfoundland Model Forest
- ⌘ Forestry Centres and Headquarters of the Canadian Forest Service

Canadian Model Forest Network

measured; demonstrate the best management practices available; be adaptive, replicable by others, and relevant on a temporal basis (reflecting links between changes in economic, social, and environmental circumstances); and be able to show trends in behaviour and attitudes.

The suites of local-level indicators can be used by each of the model forests to describe its progress toward sustainable forest management. In addition, a network-wide initiative is enabling the model forests to