
and letter of acceptance at university, as well as about $100 cash in Canadian currency, which will be required for immediate expenses such as meals, lodgings, local transportation and tips. Some of this currency should be in $1 and $5 bills, with a small amount in change -- 25-cent pieces (quarters), 10-cent pieces (dimes) and 5-cent pieces (nickels).

If a student has made arrangements with an organization in Canada to meet him on arrival, he should contact the organization if any changes have to be made in travel plans. During August and September, the Canadian Bureau for International Education operates a special "Overseas Students Reception Desk" at the Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver airports. Its representatives, on duty until midnight every day including Sunday, wear armbands with the words "Reception Service -- Service d'Accueil". They will welcome students arriving on international flights and assist them with their onward travel plans.

If you arrive at an airport and find no one there to meet you, travel into the city by airport bus, airport limousine or taxi. Make enquiries about which mode of transportation is the least expensive depending on your final destination in the city. Ordinarily, limousine or bus service to the centre of the city costs $2.00-$2.50.

It is recommended that students travelling by sea who wish to be met write to the Canadian Bureau for International Education, Suite 408, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa K1P 5H3, Canada, at least one month before arrival, giving the name of the ship, class of passage, port and date of arrival in Canada.

Temporary accommodation: Single men and women can usually find temporary accommodation in a YMCA or YWCA, where rooms are usually less expensive than in a hotel. It is often convenient to reserve a room for a night or two on arrival, until one has time to find other accommodation. In some cases, it may be necessary to share a room. Accommodation for one night will cost about $7.50.

Hotels The price quoted in a Canadian hotel is for the room only, and meals are not included. A single room with bathroom costs a minimum of about $15.00-$20.00 a day. Rooms can be reserved by telephone or letter, but will not be held beyond the stipulated day of arrival. There is a specified checking-out time when rooms must be vacated. Arrangements can always be made for baggage to be looked after or "checked" until a guest is ready to depart. Failure to observe the checking-out time usually involves a charge for an additional day.
