BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Chevrier: May I inquire from the house leader what the business will be for tomorrow and for Friday and Saturday as well?

Mr. Green: Tomorrow we intend to commence with the estimates of northern affairs and then take labour, fisheries and transport. I am not sure on what day, except that the estimates of mines and technical surveys will be on Saturday, but before the end of the week we plan to take also post office, national health and welfare and citizenship and immigration.

Mr. Chevrier: What does the government intend to do on Monday? I hope the leader will find it possible to tell us.

Mr. Green: It will be legislation.

Mr. Chevrier: Can the minister indicate what legislation?

Mr. Green: No, I cannot give the order at the moment.

Mr. Chevrier: When is it intended to discuss the dumping legislation?

Mr. Green: I hope that the resolution preceding the bill will be in Votes and Proceedings for tomorrow which will come out on Friday.

Mr. Chevrier: Can the leader give any indication as to when the legislation having to do with radio and television will be introduced?

Mr. Green: That too is almost ready to come before the house. I am not sure on what date it will actually appear but I believe within the next day or so.

It being ten minutes after six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to the order of the house passed on August 4.
