

Business of the House

inces will organize their lotteries, it is not up to us federal members to look into the matter.

Now, first of all I would point out to the hon. member for Villeneuve that the Criminal Code is under federal jurisdiction—

Mr. Caouette: Amend it.

Mr. Choquette: When it comes to amending the Criminal Code, any member has not only the right, but the specific and imperative duty to know how it is to be amended. And to answer to the hon. member—

Mr. Caouette: Mr. Speaker—

Mr. Choquette: Mr. Speaker, I should like to complete my remarks—

Mr. Caouette: It is six o'clock.

[Text]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Batten): Order. It being six o'clock I must advise the house that the hour for the consideration of private members' business has expired.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Churchill: Could we give the last word to the acting house leader: Monday and Tuesday a supply motion?

Mr. MacNaught: On Monday and Tuesday there will be a motion to go into supply.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
