Sir Arthur W. Carvie, G.C.M.S., F.L.S.
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir:-

Acknowledging your letter of the eleventh inst., may I say that the matter which I desired to talk over is one that has been stering up for several years and can very well await your convenience. Some morning next week would suit admirably and I will take the liberty of telephoning your office for a definite appointment before calling.

yours faithfully,

W. G. Dutton
Professor of Entomology.
