

12. The Club shall, for the time being, be limited to twenty ordinary members in number, and shall not be increased except by a vote of all its members, and upon terms then determined.

13. Honorary members may be elected by a unanimous vote of the Club.

14. Absent members may vote by proxy, but such proxy shall be held and voted on by a member of the Club personally present.

15. Any candidate for new membership, or any person who shall have acquired the interest or share of a member under Section 21, shall be nominated by a member of the Club, in writing, addressed to the Secretary, at least ten days before the time appointed for the annual meeting, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to at once notify each member of the Club of the name and address of the person so nominated, and that a vote thereon will be taken, and one-third of the members present objecting shall be sufficient to exclude the person from membership. If the vote be favorable, the Secretary shall notify the person elected to membership of his acceptance.

16. The initiation fee of each member shall be $20, to cover dues of current year, and the annual subscription thereafter shall be $10, and no member shall be liable for any sum in excess of that amount during the current year, unless a special assessment is voted at the general meeting.

17. All members of the Club shall have equal rights and privileges in respect thereof, and to the use of the Club buildings and property.
