

dence has now furnished the church with such facilities for operation, and opened such a door of usefulness, especially among the heathen nations. that we shall be greatly wanting in duty to our Master, if we do not endeavour to avail ourselves of these opportunities of doing good, which were never so abundantly afforded to any other age?

“6. Is it not evident that the distribution of evangelical Tracts is one of the most effectual methods of disseminating THE TRUTH OF GOD; and has not the blessing which has hitherto attended this enterprise, both in Christian and heathen lands, warranted the conclusion that it is one of God’s chosen means for the accomplishment of his purposes and predictions relating to the conversion of the world?

“7. The prosecution of this object obstructs no other benevolent operation, but is a necessary auxiliary to all others; while then other Societies, as particularly Bible Societies and Missionary Societies, are engaged in making extraordinary exertions, ought not the Tract Society also to move forward with renewed zeal and enlarged plans of operation?

“8. Can the genuine disciples of Christ who possess the means of promoting this cause, hold back when so loud a call is addressed to them from almost every quarter of the globe for the bread of life?

“9. Ought not mercantile enterprises now to be entered on for the very purpose of making
