

CHAPTER XIV.

AN OLD FRIEND.

	PAGE.
The Blackfeet Meet a Warm Reception—and Retreat—A Wounded Indian—Proves to be Ponoko—who Tells of a White Man in the Indian Camp—A Friendly Conference	113

CHAPTER XV.

A HAPPY ENDING.

Ponoko Recovers—Time Passes without Further Attack, and Meat has to be Procured—Red Squirrel again sent on Scout—Returns pursued by Six Blackfeet—Timely Rescue—Poor Red Squirrel is quite Exhausted—The Blackfeet Return in Large Numbers—Ponoko goes out to Meet Them—Effect of his Appearance on the Tribe—He Returns with a White Man—Rose finds a Father—And both find a Wife and Mother—All Ends Happily at Last 121

