

the following
J. N. Bell, who
t.
of the entrance
River, Hudson's
most commanding Churchill
time mounted
ing quite large
the erection of
Joseph Robson,
action for some
e Hudson's Bay
etails regarding
ed in Robson's
square of three corner. Robson
the walls forty-
the interference
were reduced to
ng fired from the
l rebuilt accord-
had arches for feet, and in the
ur feet long and
it through the
d four feet wide.
ood supplied by
up the Churchill
in 1688, but in
rapet. Robson's
l office building,
he describes one
33 feet with side
vered with lead.
by the French
n his own book

INSIDE VIEW OF RUINS OF FORT PRINCE OF WALES, Churchill Harbour.

(From a Photograph by Professor Bell.)